JOMO COMES NATURALLY HERE

EXPERIENCE THE JOY OF MISSING OUT IN SAUK PRAIRIE

The Joy of Missing Out #JOMO

In Sauk Prairie, we've redefined what it means to disconnect — not from people, but from pressure.

JOMO isn't just a phrase here. It's the decision to trade chaos for calm, stress for sunsets, and burnout for balance. Whether you're building a life, growing a business, or planning a weekend escape, Sauk Prairie gives you room to breathe — and reasons to stay.

Start your Sauk Prairie story www.saukprairie.com

LIVE THE JOMO LIFESTYLE

JOMO ON THE WEEKEND
Kayaks before coffee. Bikes after brunch. Slow mornings, big adventures, and no to-do lists required.

JOMO AT HOME
Quiet neighborhoods. Big skies. A slower pace. Where the porch swing matters more than the commute.

JOMO AT WORK
Short drives. Strong community. Where work-life balance isn't a perk, it's a given.

JOMO WITH COMMUNITY
From splash pads to live theater and night markets, connection thrives in every season.

JOMO (JOY OF MISSING OUT) | JOMO (ALEGRÍA DE PERDERSE ALGO)

ARTS, CULTURE & HISTORY

ROOTED IN HISTORY. INSPIRED BY THE ARTS.

Sauk City and Prairie du Sac are twin villages along the Wisconsin River, just 30 minutes from Madison. Named after the Sauk (Sac) Native Americans, the area became known as Sauk Prairie. Sauk City, settled in the 1840s by German immigrants and Hungarian pioneer Agoston Haraszthy, is Wisconsin's oldest incorporated village. Haraszthy started what is now Wollersheim Winery. Prairie du Sac followed as settlers from the East moved in. Many family farms still thrive on the surrounding prairie.

Sauk Prairie is a community that celebrates creativity. From strong arts education in schools to year-round performances by the Sauk Prairie Theatre Guild, the arts are alive and well here.

RIVER ARTS, INC.

River Arts, Inc. supports local artists through exhibits, concerts, and classes at two locations: the River Arts Center and River Arts on Water Gallery. Visit riverartsinc.org or stop by the gallery in Prairie du Sac. Free admission.

AUGUST DERLETH

Sauk City native August Derleth authored over 100 books, capturing the spirit of Wisconsin in his Sac Prairie Saga, which earned him a Guggenheim Fellowship.

HISTORIC SITES

- Tripp Heritage Museum: Local exhibits, a 7,000-year-old bison find, and 300+ mounted birds. Open Saturdays 10am–1pm. Free.
- Badger History Museum: Explore the story of the Badger Ammunition Plant. Open Tues–Sat, 10am–4pm. Free.
- Free Congregation of Sauk County: Founded in 1852, meets at historic Park Hall—designed by Alfred Clas.
