

Member Code of Conduct

As a Member of the Nassau County Chamber of Commerce, I/we recognize that membership is a privilege and that a membership brings with it the responsibility to assure that all members understand and commit to the following code of conduct. The code of conduct shall, without limitation, require members and all participants of Chamber-sponsored programs to:

1. Abide by the Bylaws of the Nassau County Chamber of Commerce for any applicable programs of the Chamber. The Bylaws serve as the governing document for all programs and will supersede all other documents.
2. Refrain from publicly disparaging the business practices of fellow members and refrain from condoning or engaging in misrepresentation or unethical practices.
3. Conduct business and professional activities in a reputable manner so as to reflect honorably upon the business community and fellow Chamber members.
4. Respect the reputation, profile and status of the Nassau County Chamber of Commerce and represent the Chamber accordingly.
5. Understand, support, and promote the Vision and Mission of the Nassau County Chamber and cooperate with fellow members in the application of this Code of Conduct.
6. Whenever reasonably possible, participate in the functions and activities of the Chamber, and promote the enhancement of business growth within the Nassau County Chamber of Commerce.
7. Observe the highest standards of ethics in rendering services and/or offering products for sale, based on the members' own knowledge and expertise.
8. Refrain from engaging in any practices prohibited by law or seeking unfair advantage over fellow members and conform to all laws established by Municipal, State and Federal governments for the control of said business, where applicable.
9. Present a true presentation in all advertising. Goods and services shall be advertised in accordance with all Municipal, State and Federal legislation.
10. Respect the role of the Chamber of Commerce staff.
