

Code of Conduct

1. Politeness and Respect:

I will treat all members, guests, and community members with courtesy, respect, and kindness, both in person and online.

I will actively promote an environment free from bullying, harassment, or discrimination.

2. Professional Representation:

I understand that my actions and words reflect not only on myself but also on the Rowan Young Professionals group and the Rowan Chamber of Commerce.

I will conduct myself in a professional and responsible manner at all times.

3. Positive Online Presence:

I will not engage in posting negative comments, reviews, or content about fellow members' businesses or personal lives on social media or any online platform.

I will use social media responsibly and refrain from spreading harmful or offensive content.

4. Advocacy for Our Community:

I will actively support and advocate for the betterment of our local community.

I will participate in community events, volunteer opportunities, and initiatives that promote the well-being of our community.

5. Collaboration and Networking:

I will actively engage in networking and collaborative opportunities within the group to foster professional growth and development.

I will support fellow members in achieving their goals and aspirations.

6. Conflict Resolution:

If conflicts or disagreements arise, I will address them professionally and constructively, seeking resolution through open communication and mediation when necessary.

7. Compliance with Laws and Regulations:

I will adhere to all applicable local, state, and federal laws and regulations in my professional and personal conduct.

8. Accountability:

I understand that I am accountable for my actions as a member of this group and am willing to accept the consequences of any violations of this code of conduct.

By following this code of conduct, we commit to creating a welcoming and supportive environment for all members of the Rowan Young Professionals group and uphold the reputation of our community and the Rowan Chamber of Commerce.