BENEFITS OF AFC MEMBERSHIP:

- Military outsourcing opportunities — Receive updates on military outsourcing efforts and the potential opportunities these efforts offer Guam's business community.
- Referrals for goods and services — Names of AFC members will be given in response to referral calls from the military for needed goods and services.
- Promotion of Member products, services and facilities — Participate in vendor fairs and briefing sessions to keep the military abreast of available member resources.
- Access to technical and operational resources — Sponsor and participate in seminars and workshops that provide members with information regarding anticipated changes in the military's procurement processes. These forms will also serve as the vehicle for members to meet key military officials and civilian personnel and learn about the support services they provide.
- Luncheons with visiting Department of Defense Officials, Congressional Delegations, U.S. Ambassadors, etc.
- Tours of military bases, ship visits, and day cruises when available.
