

state of the COUNTIES

The Katy Area Chamber and Katy Area EDC invite you to the annual State of the Counties luncheon scheduled for September 12 at the Embassy Suites Houston West-Katy.

The annual State of Counties highlights our region's leaders from Harris, Fort Bend, and Waller County. The program features Waller County Judge Trey Duhon, Fort Bend County Commissioner Precinct 1 Vincent Morales, and Harris County Commissioner Precinct 4 Lesley Briones.

Our elected leaders have experienced exponential growth in population, economic development, and innovation, and during their tenure whereas they have has been dedicated to improving workforce development, infrastructure investments, community education, and public health. Through it all, our leaders have played a key role in maintaining the region's business friendly environment.

As a sponsor of the State of the Counties, you and your business have a unique opportunity to showcase your organization in front of key community and business leaders.
