What do you love most about Scottsdale?

Stunning Natural Beauty: The city is surrounded by breathtaking desert landscapes, including the McDowell Sonoran Preserve and Camelback Mountain. This provides ample opportunities for outdoor activities like hiking, biking, and enjoying the beauty of the Sonoran Desert.

What Is the Best Part About Working at Capital One Café?

Capital One really invests in its people. They give a tremendous amount of opportunities for personal development, skillset growth, and expanded education. They understand when you invest in people, the returns are exponential.

How does your business give back to the community?

Community Engagement: Our mission to Change Banking for Good guides how we run our businesses, how we serve our customers and communities and how we treat each other. This includes a focus on the role we play in helping people achieve financial well-being. Locally, we also volunteer in the community and have available space throughout our Café for connecting with free Wi-Fi throughout.

What Is One Thing You Want Readers to Know About Capital One Café?

Everyone's welcome! Whether you bank with us or not, everyone is welcome to come relax and recharge at our Cafés. They're truly a community space and here to support your everyday well-being.

What is the biggest benefit you have received from your membership in the Scottsdale Chamber?

Being locally connected to all types of members/businesses and the ability to engage with the Scottsdale community to share our mission, Café space, and services.
