The PAF Advantage

Prompt service when you need support

Agencies get a live dedicated support team they can rely upon to quickly answer questions and resolve challenges.

Lower down payments

Customers can significantly reduce up-front expenses and keep more money in their pockets for business-critical needs.

Integrated cross-marketing

This exclusive feature allows agencies to capture more wallet-share from their existing customers each time they access their account.

Licensed to lend in all 50 States

Agents are not limited by geography because PAF is privately owned and licensed to provide loans nationwide.

Paperless technology platform

Customers can e-sign their premium finance agreements and sign up for automatic payments and digital notifications.

Revenue participation

In states where applicable, agencies can include financing points to our financing terms to generate additional revenue.
