Purpose Criteria
To bestow upon a new REALTOR® the acknowledgement for the hard work and dedication in his/her new profession.

The Rookie of the Year is based upon the first twelve months of accomplishments from the date of an individual's receipt of his/her real estate license. The candidate is eligible to apply only one time. The award is for a period not to exceed his/her first twelve months. Applications will be accepted for this award from REALTORS® with less than twelve months, but the nominee must be a member in good standing of BRAR during the award year. Eligibility and points in each category are not required; the award is judged on the overall points accumulated, the applicant cannot apply again.
