

A BRIEF HISTORY OF KCAR

The Kent County Association of REALTORS® (KCAR) is a professional REALTOR® trade association located in Central Delaware for individuals involved in the real estate industry and its complementing industries. The Association is composed of 500+ members and a growing affiliate membership population.

The Association bylaws, policies, rules, and regulations are all in compliance with the National Association of REALTORS®. KCAR is invested in the beliefs of the National Association of REALTORS® and the real estate profession.

KCAR became into existence in 1945 with G. Leslie Gooden as its first president. KCAR provides its members the proper tools needed to become an excellent and ethical REALTOR®.
