

Benefits of attending the 2024 NLLEA Conference Conference Permission Request

Dear _____

I am writing to request your permission to attend the 37th Annual National Liquor Law Enforcement Association Conference (NLLEA) being held November 18-20, 2024, at the Hotel Ballast and conference center in Wilmington, NC. NLLEA is the leading association supporting alcohol law enforcement agencies and their partners providing education, training, and expertise specific to our field.

The theme of this year's conference is Back to Basics: Fundamentals of Alcohol Law Enforcement. Workshops and presentations will be available to meet the training needs of new hires to veteran alcohol law enforcement agents and officers. Workshop and presentation topics at this year's conference include:

- Licensee Inspections
- Fake ID
- Source Investigations
- Human Trafficking
- Recognizing Traits of Armed Individuals(s)
- Cannabis Regulation
- ALE Leadership and more...

Registration for this year's conference is $550.00 for NLLEA members/$750.00 for non-members. For more information on the NLLEA membership fee structure visit www.nllea.org. Registration includes Day One: breakfast, lunch, snack, and dinner Day Two: breakfast, lunch, and snack Day Three: breakfast (1/2 day). Hotel reservations are available at a reduced conference rate.

"There is no organization that has greater insight and expertise in all areas of alcohol enforcement. The conference provides a unique opportunity to meet and network with the nation's foremost experts in alcohol law and policy. The NLLEA's relationship with industry is anything but adversarial but is one of cooperation towards the fulfillment of common goals."-Conference Attendee

If you have any questions or need more information concerning details of the conference you can reach out to Carrie Christofes, Executive Director at carrie.christofes@nllea.org.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
