 - ii. Comments Concerning Applicant. That the applicant agrees that CRCBR, through its Membership Committee or otherwise, may invite and receive information and comment about the applicant from any member or other person, and that applicant further agrees that any information and comment furnished to CRCBR by any person in response to the invitation shall be conclusively deemed to be privileged and shall not form the basis of any action for slander, libel, or defamation of character. The applicant shall, in addition to the application form, have access to copies of these Bylaws, and the Constitutions, Rules and Regulations, and the Code of Ethics referred to above.

Section 2. Qualification.

- a. REALTOR® Members. All applicants for REALTOR® membership, as defined more fully in Article I, Section I.a.i.iii., must meet the qualification requirements of one of the following REALTOR® categories and complete the required instruction course within the maximum time allotted:
 - i. Principal REALTORS®. Principal REALTOR® applicants, as defined in Article I, Section 1.a.i. must be a sole proprietor, partner, corporate officer or principal of a real estate firm and shall supply evidence satisfactory to the Membership Committee in its discretion of matters which shall include, but not be limited to the following:
 - (1) that he or she is actively engaged in the real estate profession;

- (2) that he or she maintains a valid and current real estate broker's or salesperson's license or is licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property;
- (3) that he or she has no record of recent (within the past 3 years) or pending bankruptcy;¹

ii. Managing and Non-Principal REALTOR®. Managing REALTOR® - applicants, as defined in Article I, Section 1.a.ii. at the time of application, must be actively engaged in a position which exercises management control of a real estate office/department, if seeking membership in that category; or if seeking membership as a Non-Principal REALTOR® as defined in Article I, Section 1.a.iii at the time of application, must be actively engaged in the real estate profession other than as a sole proprietor, partner, corporate officer,

¹ "No recent or pending bankruptcy" is intended to mean that the applicant or any real estate firm in which the applicant is a sole proprietor, general partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager, is not involved in any pending bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings or, has not been adjudged bankrupt in the past three (3) years. If a bankruptcy proceeding as described above exists, membership may not be rejected unless the association establishes that its interests and those of its members and the public could not be adequately protected by requiring that the bankrupt applicant pay cash in advance for association and Commercial Property Exchange fees for up to one (1) year from the date that membership is approved or from the date that the applicant is discharged from bankruptcy (whichever is later). In the event that an existing member initiates bankruptcy proceedings, the member may be placed on a "cash basis" from the date that bankruptcy is initiated until one (1) year from the date that the member has been discharged from bankruptcy.

² "No record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct" is intended to mean that the association may only consider:

- a. judgments against the applicant within the past three (3) years of violations of (1) civil rights laws, (2) real estate license laws, and (3) or other laws prohibiting unprofessional conduct against the applicant rendered by the courts or other lawful authorities
- b. criminal convictions if (1) the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year under the law under which the applicant was convicted, and (2) no more than ten (10) years have elapsed since the date of the conviction or the release of the applicant from the confinement imposed for that conviction, whichever is the later date.

principal or manager, and shall be employed by or associated with, as an independent contractor, a real estate firm that:

- (1) has named a Principal or Managing REALTOR® member as the Designated REALTOR® for the firm pursuant to Article I, Section 1.a.i.;
- (2) maintains an established real estate business;
- (3) that he or she maintains a valid and current real estate broker's or salesperson's license or is licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property;
- (4) that he or she has no record of official sanctions involving unprofessional conduct nor any record of felony criminal convictions (within the past 3 years);²
- (5) shall complete a course of instruction covering the bylaws and rules and regulations of the association, the Bylaws of the State Association, and the Constitution and Bylaws and Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS®, and shall pass such reasonable and nondiscriminatory written examination thereon, as may be required by the committee, and shall agree that if elected to membership, he/she will abide by such Constitution, Bylaws, rules and regulations and Code of Ethics.

iii. Course of Instruction.

Applicants for REALTOR® membership and provisional REALTOR® members shall complete an orientation program on the Code of Ethics of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement does not apply to applicants for REALTOR® membership or provisional members who have completed comparable orientation in another association, provided that REALTOR® membership has been continuous, or that any break in membership is for one year or less.

Failure to satisfy this requirement within 360 days of the date of application will result in denial of the membership application.

- iv. Continuing Member Code of Ethics Training. Effective January 1, 2019, through December 31, 2021, and for successive two year periods thereafter, each REALTOR® member of the association shall be required to complete ethics training of not less than two hours and thirty minutes of instructional time. This requirement will be satisfied upon presentation of documentation that the member has completed a course of instruction conducted by this or another association, the North or South Carolina Association of REALTORS®, the National Association of REALTORS®, or any other recognized educational institution or provider which meets the learning objectives and minimum criteria established by the National Association of REALTORS® from time to time. REALTOR® members who have completed training as a requirement of membership in another association and REALTOR® members who have completed the New Member Code of Ethics Orientation during any three year cycle shall not be required to complete additional ethics training until a new three year cycle commences.

Failure to satisfy this requirement shall be considered a violation of a membership duty. Failure to meet the requirement in any three year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any three year cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever occurs sooner.

On March 1 of that year, the membership of member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.

- v. Application Time Limitation and Forfeiture of Fee. All applicants for REALTOR® membership whose completed application is received in the CRCBR office shall complete said orientation course of instruction within three hundred and sixty (360) days after the application is received (hereinafter called the Application Period). The effective date of REALTOR® membership will be the date that ALL requirements pre-requisite to membership are completed and in the hands of the Membership Committee of CRCBR. In the event that the applicant fails to complete all requirements during the Application Period, the application will be of no further force and effect, and the application fees will be forfeited to CRCBR. Applicants will have no membership rights or privileges in CRCBR during the Application Period.
- b. Institute Affiliate Members. Membership applicants, as the category is defined in Article I, Section 1.b., shall meet such requirements as the Board of Directors may prescribe, consistent with these Bylaws.
- c. Associate or Corporate Associate Members. Membership applicants, as the categories are defined in Article I, Sections 1.c. and d., shall meet such requirements as the Board of Directors may prescribe, consistent with these Bylaws.
- d. Public Service, Student, Honorary and Emeritus Members. Membership applicants, as the categories are defined in Article I, Section 1.e., f., g. and h., shall meet such requirements as the Board of Directors may prescribe, consistent with these Bylaws.
- e. Provisional Membership. Article IV, Section 2, of the National Association Bylaws prohibits Member Boards from knowingly granting REALTOR® membership to any applicant who has an unfulfilled sanction pending which was imposed by another Board or Association of REALTORS® for violation of the Code of Ethics. Provisional Membership may be granted in instances where ethics complaints or arbitration requests (or hearings) are pending in other associations or where the applicant for membership has unsatisfied discipline pending in another association (except for violations of the Code of Ethics; See Article I Section 2.f.) provided all other qualifications for membership have been satisfied. Associations may reconsider the membership status of such individuals when all pending ethics and arbitration matters (and related discipline) have been resolved or if such matters are not resolved within six months from the date that provisional membership is approved. Provisional members shall be considered REALTORS® and shall be subject to all of the same privileges and obligations of REALTOR® membership. If a member resigns from another association with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending, the association may condition membership on the applicant's certification that he/she will submit to the pending ethics or arbitration proceeding (in accordance with the established procedures of the association to which the applicant has made application) and will abide by the decision of the hearing panel.

Section 3. Election to Membership.

- a. Analysis of Applicant. The CRCBR Staff shall determine whether the applicant is applying for the appropriate class of membership.
- b. Written Report; Election to Membership. The Membership Committee shall receive a written report from the CRCBR Staff on all membership applications at its next regular meeting. If the Membership Committee determines that the applicant does not meet all of the qualifications for membership as established in the CRCBR Bylaws, or, if the applicant does not satisfy all of the requirements of membership (for example, completion of a mandatory orientation program) within three hundred sixty (360) days from the association's receipt of their application, membership may, at the discretion of the board of directors, be terminated. In such instances, dues shall be returned to the individual less a prorated amount to cover the number of days that the individual received CRCBR services and any application fee. The Membership Committee shall vote on the applicant's eligibility for membership. If the applicant receives a majority vote of the Membership Committee, he/she shall be declared elected to membership and shall be advised by written notice. The Membership Committee shall conduct all proceedings in compliance with the Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of CRCBR and with strict attention to the principals of due process.
- c. Application Rejection. The Membership Committee may not reject an application without providing the applicant with advance notice of the findings, an opportunity to appear before the Board of Directors, to call witnesses on his/her behalf, to be represented by counsel, and to make such statements as he/she deems relevant. The Board of Directors may also have counsel present. The Board of Directors shall require that written minutes be made of any hearing before it or may electronically or mechanically record the proceedings.
- d. Due Process Requirements. If the Board of Directors determines that the application should be rejected, it shall record its reasons with CRCBR Staff. If the Board of Directors believes that denial of membership to the applicant may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by the applicant, it may specify that denial shall become effective upon entry in a suit by CRCBR for a declaratory judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction of a final judgment declaring that the rejection violates no rights of the applicant.

Section 4. Status. A REALTOR® member who changes the conditions under which he holds membership shall be required to provide written notification to CRCBR within thirty (30) days of any such change. A Non-Principal REALTOR® member who becomes a principal in the firm with which he has been licensed or, alternatively, becomes a principal in a new firm which will be comprised of REALTOR® principals, may be required to satisfy any previously unsatisfied membership requirements applicable to Principal REALTOR® members but shall, during the period of transition from one status of membership to another, be subject to all of the privileges and obligations of a Principal REALTOR® member. If the Non-Principal REALTOR® member does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which he or she has transferred within thirty (30) days of the date the Board was advised of the change in status, the new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III - PRIVILEGES AND OBLIGATIONS

Section 1. General. The privileges and obligations of members, in addition to those provided elsewhere in these Bylaws, shall be specified in this Article III.

Section 2. Privileges and Consequences of Membership.

a. REALTOR® Members.

- i. Voting and Office Holding. REALTOR® members, whether primary or secondary, in good standing whose financial obligations to CRCBR are paid in full shall be entitled to vote and eligible to hold elective office in CRCBR.
- ii. Use of Term. REALTOR® members may use the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS®, which use shall be subject to the provision of Article V, infra.
- iii. Responsibility to Protect Standards. REALTOR® members have the responsibility to safeguard and promote the standards, interests and welfare of CRCBR and the real estate profession.
- iv. Suspension of REALTOR® Members. If a Principal or Managing REALTOR® is suspended or terminated, the proprietorship, partnership, corporation or firm of which he/she is a principal or the branch office which he/she is managing shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® in connection with its business during the disciplined REALTOR® member's period of suspension or until the member is reinstated, unless the REALTOR® member's connection with the proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office is severed. The REALTOR® memberships of all other partners, corporate officers or principals therein shall also be suspended during the disciplined member's period of suspension or shall be terminated entirely if the member was terminated, unless the connection of the disciplined member with the partnership, corporation, firm or branch office is severed. Further, the Non-Principal REALTOR® members who are also employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with the disciplined REALTOR® member or his proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office shall also be suspended during the period of suspension, or terminated if appropriate, of the disciplined REALTOR® member unless the Non-Principal REALTOR® member elects to sever his connection with the suspended or terminated REALTOR® member and affiliates with another REALTOR® member who is in good standing with CRCBR or unless the connection of the disciplined REALTOR® member with the proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office is severed, whichever may apply. Once the disciplined REALTOR® member is reinstated to CRCBR membership, then the proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office and its partners, corporate officers, or principals therein are also reinstated to REALTOR® membership, as are the Non-Principal REALTOR® members who are still employed by or affiliated with the reinstated REALTOR® member. If a Non-Principal REALTOR® member who is an employee of or an independent contractor with a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office is suspended or terminated, the use of the terms REALTOR® or REALTOR® by that proprietorship, partnership, corporation, firm or branch office shall not be affected.

v. Notices. In any action taken against a REALTOR® member for suspension or termination under Article III, Section 2. a. iv., notice of such action shall be given to all REALTORS® employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with such REALTOR® member, and they shall be advised that the provisions in Article III. Section 2.a.iv. shall apply.

b. Institute Affiliate Members. Institute Affiliate Members shall have such rights and privileges and be subject to such obligations as prescribed by the Board of Directors consistent with the Constitution, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations of CRCBR and the respective State and National Association of REALTORS®.

NOTE: CRCBR establishes the rights and privileges to be conferred on Institute Affiliate Members except that no Institute Affiliate Member may be granted the right to use the term REALTOR® or the REALTOR® logo; or to serve as President of CRCBR.

c. Associate Members. Associate Members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of CRCBR except the right to use the term REALTOR®.

d. Corporate Associate Members. Corporate Associate Members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of CRCBR except the right to use the term REALTOR®.

e. Public Service, Student, Honorary and Emeritus Members. Public Service, Student, Honorary and Emeritus Members shall have such rights and privileges and be subject to such obligations as prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Certification by Designated REALTORS®. Each year, Designated REALTOR® members of CRCBR shall certify to CRCBR, on a form provided by CRCBR, a complete list of all individuals licensed with that Designated REALTOR® member's firm(s) and shall indicate which are primarily engaged in commercial real estate and which are primarily engaged in non-commercial specialties of the real estate business. These declarations shall be used for purposes of calculating dues under Article VII, Section 2.a. of these Bylaws. Designated REALTOR® members shall also notify CRCBR of changes in their certified list of those individual(s) so licensed with their firm(s) within thirty (30) days of the date of any change in affiliation or severance of an individual.

Section 4. Membership Duties. It shall be the obligation of each member to strictly observe the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations of CRCBR, and to do so in a manner which always reflects credit upon CRCBR and the real estate profession. Members shall be permitted to report, in writing: (1) any breach of the foregoing, and (2) any other conduct tending to bring discredit to CRCBR or the real estate profession. Such written report shall be sent to the Secretary or Executive Vice President of CRCBR, who shall refer the report to the Ethics Committee for investigation until such time as a Final decision is made by the Board of Directors. In the event the confidentiality of a decision rendered is breached by any member of the Board of Directors, said member shall be automatically and immediately referred to the Ethics Committee for a hearing as provided for in these Bylaws.

Section 5. Basis for Membership Discipline. Any member of CRCBR may be reprimanded, fined, placed on probation, suspended, or expelled by the Board of Directors for a violation of these Bylaws or the CRCBR Rules and Regulations, after a hearing as provided in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. Although CRCBR members other than REALTOR®, members are not subject to the Code of Ethics or its enforcement by CRCBR, such non-REALTOR® members are encouraged to abide by the principles established in the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® and to conduct their business and professional practices accordingly. Further, upon recommendation of the Membership Committee or a hearing panel of the Professional Standards Committee, members other than REALTOR® members may, nevertheless, be subject to the discipline as described in this Article III for any conduct which, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, as applied on a nondiscriminatory basis, reflects adversely on the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® or the real estate industry, or for conduct that is inconsistent with or adverse to the objectives and purposes of CRCBR or the State and National Association of REALTORS®.

Section 6. REALTOR® Member Discipline. Any REALTOR® member of CRCBR may be disciplined by the Board of Directors for violations of the Code of Ethics or other duties of membership, after a hearing as described in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual, provided that the discipline imposed is consistent with the discipline authorized by the Professional Standards Committee of the National Association of REALTORS®, as set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association.

Section 7. Suspension of Membership Does Not Suspend Payment of Dues. “Suspension of Membership” means suspension of membership rights and privileges and denial of Board services, for a period not less than thirty (30) days, on terms and conditions expressly stated for an established period of time, including, but not limited to, use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTOR®-Association with reinstatement of all withdrawn membership rights and privileges and all withdrawn Board services automatically provided at the end of the specified period not to exceed one (1) year. Although membership rights, privileges, and services are withdrawn as specified in the notice of suspension, membership, per se, continues, and the suspended member remains obligated for payment of membership dues and to abide by the Code of Ethics during the period of suspension. The suspended member shall not be obligated for payment of any fees or charges except for continued optional services of the Board. Any failure to abide by the terms and conditions of the suspension, or the finding of a violation of the Code of Ethics after a hearing as provided by the professional standards procedures of the Board Bylaws, shall be grounds for consideration as to possible extension of the suspension or expulsion from membership in the Board.

Section 8. Resignation With Outstanding Dues and Fees. Resignations of members shall become effective when received in writing by the Board of Directors, provided, however, that if any member submitting his or her resignation is indebted to CRCBR for dues, fees, fines, or other assessments of CRCBR or any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries, the Board of Directors may condition the right of the resigning member to reapply for membership upon payment in full of all such monies owed.

Section 9. Resignation With Outstanding Ethics Complaint. If a member resigns from CRCBR or otherwise causes membership to terminate with an ethics complaint or arbitration request pending, the complaint or request shall be processed until the decision of CRCBR with respect to disposition of the complaint or request is final (if respondent does not hold membership in any other association) or by any other association in which the respondent continues to hold membership. If an ethics or arbitration respondent resigns or otherwise causes membership in all Boards to terminate before an ethics complaint is filed alleging unethical conduct occurred while the respondent was a REALTOR®, the complaint, once filed, shall be processed until the decision of CRCBR with respect to disposition of the complaint is final. In any instance where an ethics hearing is held subsequent to an ethic respondent's resignation or membership termination, any discipline ratified by the Board of Directors shall be held in abeyance until such time as the respondent rejoins an association of REALTORS®.

- a. If a member resigns or otherwise causes membership to terminate the duty to submit to arbitration or mediation continues in effect even after membership lapses or is terminated, provided that the dispute arose while the former member was a REALTOR®.

ARTICLE IV - PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS AND ARBITRATION

Section 1. Governance by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual. The responsibility of CRCBR and of individual CRCBR members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto shall be governed by the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association of REALTORS®, as from time to time amended, which by this reference is incorporated into these Bylaws; provided, however, that any provision deemed inconsistent with state law shall be deleted or amended to comply with state law.

The responsibility of the Board and of Board members relating to the enforcement of the Code of Ethics, the disciplining of members, the arbitration of disputes, and the organization and procedures incident thereto, shall be consistent with the cooperative professional standards enforcement agreement entered into by the Board, which by this reference is made a part of these Bylaws.

Section 2. CRCBR Members Must Submit Dispute to Arbitration. It shall be the duty and responsibility of every REALTOR® member of this association to abide by the Constitution and Bylaws and the rules and regulations of the association, the Constitution and Bylaws of the State Association, the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS®, and to abide by the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS®, including the duty to mediate and arbitrate controversies arising out of real estate transactions as specified by Article 17 of the Code of Ethics, and as further defined and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of this association, as from time to time amended.

Section 3. Arbitration of Disputes. The Board of Directors is empowered to enter into agreements with other REALTOR® Associations/Boards for the arbitration of disputes arising out of the business relations between members of this Board and members of such other REALTOR® Associations.

ARTICLE V - USE OF THE TERMS REALTOR® AND REALTORS®

Section 1. National Association Regulations Control Use of Terms. Use of the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® by members shall, at all times, be subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Bylaws of the National Association of REALTORS® and to the rules and regulations prescribed by its Board of Directors. CRCBR shall have the authority to control, jointly and in full cooperation with the National Association of REALTORS® the use of these terms within its jurisdiction. Any misuse of the terms by members is a violation of a membership duty and may subject members to disciplinary action by the Board of Directors after a hearing as provided for in the association's Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual.

Section 2. CRCBR Membership Permits Use of Term. REALTOR® members of CRCBR shall have the privilege of using the terms REALTOR® and REALTOR® in connection with their places of business within the states of North or South Carolina or a state contiguous to either of said states so long as they remain REALTOR® members in good standing. No other class of membership shall have this privilege.

In the case of a REALTOR® member who is a principal of a real estate firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, the right to use the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® shall be limited to office locations in which a principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager of the firm, partnership, or corporation holds REALTOR® membership. If a firm, partnership, or corporation operates additional places of business in which no principal, partner, corporate officer, or branch office manager holds REALTOR® membership, the term REALTOR® or REALTORS® may not be used in any reference to those additional places of business.

Section 3. Limitation on Use of Terms. A Principal REALTOR® member in a real estate sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation or other entity may use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® only if all of the partners, corporate officers, or principals of such partnership, corporation or firm who are actively engaged in the real estate profession within the states of North or South Carolina or a state contiguous to either of said states are REALTOR® members of CRCBR or Institute Affiliate Members as described in Section 1.b. of Article I.

Section 4. Use of Terms by Institute Affiliates. Institute Affiliate Members shall not use the terms REALTOR® or REALTORS® nor the imprint of the emblem seal of the National Association of REALTORS®.

ARTICLE VI - STATE AND NATIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

- Section 1. Membership through CRCBR Membership. CRCBR shall be a member of the National Association of REALTORS® and the respective State Associations of REALTORS®. By reason of CRCBR's membership, each REALTOR®, member of CRCBR shall also be entitled to membership in the National Association and their respective State Associations of REALTORS® without further payment of any dues thereto. CRCBR shall continue as a member of the National Association of REALTORS® and the State Associations of REALTORS® unless a decision is made to withdraw by a majority vote of all of its REALTOR® members. In that event, the National Association of REALTORS® and the State Associations of REALTORS® shall be notified at least one month in advance of the date designated for the termination of such membership.
- Section 2. Terms Are Exclusive Property Right. CRCBR recognizes the exclusive property rights of the National Association in the terms REALTOR® and REALTORS® as they have been assigned to CRCBR. Upon ceasing to be a member of the National Association or upon a determination by the Board of Directors of the National Association that CRCBR has violated the conditions imposed upon the use of these terms, CRCBR shall discontinue its use of these terms in its name in any form.
- Section 3. Members and CRCBR Agree to Abide by National Association Code of Ethics. CRCBR adopts the Code of Ethics of the National Association of REALTORS® and agrees to enforce the Code among its REALTOR® members. CRCBR and all of its members agree to abide by the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules and Regulations, and policies of the National Association of REALTORS® and the respective State Associations of REALTORS®.

ARTICLE VII - FEES, DUES AND ASSESSMENTS

- Section 1. Application Fee. The Board of Directors may adopt an application fee schedule for all classes of membership. The application fee for the REALTOR® members shall be a reasonable amount, not exceeding three (3) times the amount of the annual dues for REALTOR® membership, which fee shall accompany each application for REALTOR® membership and shall become the property of CRCBR upon final approval of the application or as provided for in Article III, Section 2.a.iv. Application fees shall be set by the Board of Directors having due regard for the value of the membership to the real estate profession in the CRCBR jurisdiction and for the value of the physical and other facilities and services of CRCBR available to its membership.
- Section 2. Dues. Annual dues for the following classes of membership shall be set by a majority vote of the Board of Directors:
- a. REALTOR® Members. The dues of each REALTOR® member shall be in such amount as established annually by the Board of Directors, plus an additional amount, which will also be established annually by the Board of Directors, times the number of real estate salespersons and licensed or certified appraisers who:

- i. are employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with, or otherwise directly or indirectly licensed with the REALTOR® member, and
- ii. are not REALTOR® members of any other Board in the states of North or South Carolina or in a state contiguous thereto, or are Institute Affiliate Members with CRCBR. Provided, however, that if two or more REALTOR® members are principals of the same partnership, corporation or firm, then only that REALTOR® member designated from time to time, in writing, as the Designated REALTOR® member, by the partnership, corporation or firm shall be required to pay that portion of the dues which is computed on the basis of:
 - (1) the real estate licensee salespeople, and
 - (2) those licensed or certified appraisers employed by or affiliated as independent contractors with the partnership, corporation or firm. The dues of the remaining REALTOR® members who are partners, officers or principals in the same partnership, corporation or firm shall be only such base amount as determined by the Board of Directors. For the purpose of this Section, a REALTOR® member of CRCBR shall be defined as a Principal or Managing REALTOR® member, as set forth in Article I of these Bylaws and who, as a Principal or Managing REALTOR® member, is engaged primarily in the real estate profession as defined in Article III, Section 1.c of the Constitution of the National Association of REALTORS®. An individual shall be deemed- to be licensed with a REALTOR® member if the license of that individual is held by the REALTOR® member, or by any broker who is licensed with the REALTOR® member, or by any entity in which the REALTOR® member has a direct or indirect ownership interest and which is engaged in soliciting and/or referring clients or customers to the REALTOR® member or his firm on a substantially exclusive basis (except as provided for in Section 2(a) (1) hereof), provided that such licensee is not otherwise included in the computation of dues payable by the partner, corporate officer or principal of the entity. In calculating the dues payable to the Board of a Designated REALTOR®, member, non-member licensees as defined in this article shall not be included in the computation of dues if the Designated REALTOR® has paid dues based on said non-member licensees in another Board in the state or a state contiguous thereto, provided the Designated REALTOR® notifies the Board in writing of the identity of the Board to which dues have been remitted.
 - (3) in the case of a Designated REALTOR® Member in a firm, partnership, or corporation whose business activity is substantially all commercial, any assessments for non-member licensees shall be limited to licensees affiliated with the Designated REALTOR® (as defined in (1) and (2) of this paragraph) in the office where the Designated REALTOR® holds membership, and any other offices of the firm located within the jurisdiction of this board.
 - (4) A REALTOR® with direct or indirect ownership interest in an entity engaged exclusively in soliciting and/or referring clients and customers to the REALTOR® for consideration on a substantially exclusive basis shall annually file with the association on a form approved by the association a list of the licensees affiliated with that entity and shall certify that all of the licensees affiliated with the entity are solely engaged in referring clients and customers and are not engaged in listing, selling, leasing, managing, counseling or appraising real property. The individuals disclosed on such form shall not be deemed to be licensed with the REALTOR® filing the form for purposes of this Section and shall not be included in calculating the annual dues of the Designated REALTOR®.

- b. Institute Affiliate Members. The Institutes, Societies and Councils of the National Association shall be responsible for collecting and remitting dues to the National Association for Institute Affiliate Members ($105.00). The National Association shall credit $35.00 to the account of a local association for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is within the assigned territorial jurisdiction of that association, provided, however, if the office location is also within the territorial jurisdiction of a Commercial Overlay Board (COB), the $35.00 amount will be credited to the COB, unless the Institute Affiliate Member directs that the dues be distributed to the other board. The National Association shall also credit $35.00 to the account of state associations for each Institute Affiliate Member whose office address is located within the territorial jurisdiction of the state association. Local and state associations may not establish any additional entrance, initiation fees or dues for Institute Affiliate Members, but may provide service packages to which Institute Affiliate Members may voluntarily subscribe.
- c. Associate and Corporate Associate Members. The annual dues of each Associate Member shall be an amount as set by the Board of Directors. The annual dues for each individual Corporate Associate Member shall be the same as for individual Associate Members.
- d. Public Service, Student Members, Honorary Members and Emeritus Members. The annual dues of each Public Service Member, Student Member, Honorary Member and Emeritus Member shall be an amount as set by the Board of Directors.

Section 3. Dues Payable. Dues for all members shall be payable annually in advance on the first (1st) day of January of the current year. As to new members elected to membership other than on the first (1st) day of the year, dues shall be computed for the first day of the month in which a member is elected to membership; they shall be prorated for the remainder of the year and shall be payable not later than ten (10) days after notification of election to membership. Dues which have been paid are non-refundable for any reason.

Section 4. Non-Payment of Dues. If all dues of all individuals certified by a Designated REALTOR® on the certification provided pursuant to Article III, Section 3 of these Bylaws, are not paid prior to January 25 of the current year, membership of all individuals certified by a Designated REALTOR® on the certification provided pursuant to Article III, Section 3 of these bylaws is automatically terminated.

Reinstatement Must Occur Within the Calendar Year of Termination. A former member whose membership has been terminated for non-payment of dues duly levied in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of other rules and regulations of CRCBR or any of its services, departments, divisions, or subsidiaries may request reinstatement within the calendar year of termination, after making payment in full on all dues owing as of the date of the termination plus such reinstatement fee as may be set by the Board of Directors. Reinstatement shall be retroactive to January 1 of that calendar year with all relevant membership rights and privileges being reinstated. Reinstatement of a former member beyond the calendar year of termination shall be handled in the same manner as prescribed for new membership applications.

Section 5. Non-Payment of Financial Obligation. If fees, assessments, fines, or other financial obligations which are owed to CRCBR are not paid within one (1) month of when they are assessed, membership of the non-paying member(s) is automatically suspended. If they are not paid within two (2) months of when they are assessed, membership of the non-paying member(s) is automatically terminated at the discretion of the Board of Directors. A former member who has had his membership terminated for non-payment of fees, assessments, fines, or other financial obligations duly levied in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or the provisions of other Rules and Regulations of CRCBR or any of its services, departments, divisions or subsidiaries may apply for reinstatement in the manner prescribed for all new applicants for membership, after making payment in full of all accounts due as of the date of termination.

Section 6. Deposits and Expenditures. Deposits and expenditures of funds shall be in accordance with policies established by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Notices of Dues, Fees, Fines, Assessments and Other Financial Obligations. All dues, fines, assessments, or other financial obligations to CRCBR shall be noticed in writing to the delinquent CRCBR members and shall set forth the amount owed and the due date thereof.

Section 8. Dues of REALTOR® Emeritus. The dues of REALTOR® members who are REALTOR® Emeritus (as recognized by the National Association), past presidents and past treasurers of the National Association or recipients of the Distinguished Service Award shall be as determined by the Board of Directors.³

³ NOTE: A Member Board's dues obligation to the National Association is reduced by an amount equal to the amount which the association is assessed for a REALTOR® member, times the number of REALTOR® Emeriti (as recognized by the National Association), past presidents and past treasurers of the National Association, and recipients of the Distinguished Service Award of the National Association who are REALTOR® members of the association. The dues obligation of such individuals to the local association should be reduced to reflect the reduction in the association's dues obligation to the National Association. The association may, at its option, choose to have no dues requirement for such individuals except as may be required to meet the association's obligation to the State Association with respect to such individuals. Member Boards should determine whether the dues payable by the association to the State Association are reduced with respect to such individuals. It should be noted that this does not affect a "designated" REALTOR®'s dues obligation to the association with respect to those licensees employed by or affiliated with the "designated" REALTOR® who are not members of the local association.

However, in the event that an Officer or Director is deemed to be incapable of fulfilling the duties for which elected, but will not resign from office voluntarily, the Officer or Director may be removed from office under the following procedure:

In the absence of reinstatement by the Board of Directors, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the provisions set forth in Article VIII, Section 9 of these Bylaws.

Section 3. Action Without Meeting. Action taken by the Directors or any committee without a meeting is nevertheless a Board of Directors or committee action if written consent to the action in question is signed by all the Directors or committee members (as applicable) and filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors or the committee (as applicable), whether done before or after the action so taken.

Section 4. Attendance by Electronic Means. Any one or more Directors or committee members may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee by means of a conference telephone, videoconference, or similar device which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and a person so participating in a meeting shall be deemed present in person at such meeting. Provided that, in order to so participate, (i) the Director or committee member shall make a request to the Board of Directors or committee (as applicable) to participate by means of a conference telephone, videoconference, or similar device which allows all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other, and (ii) the Board of Directors or committee (as applicable) approves the Director or committee member's request to participate by such means.
