

The Oregon Society of Medical Oncology
Spring Oncology Conference March 17, 2018

The NINES in Downtown Portland, 525 SW Morrison St, Portland, OR 97204

Friday, March 16, 2018

6:00-7:30 pm	Evening Networking Reception	Atrium 8 th Floor near Urban Farmer
7:30-9:30pm	OSMO Member Dinner w Speakers	Barrel Room 8 th Floor

Saturday, March 17, 2018 - 6th Floor Design/Fashion

8:00-8:30 am Registration and Breakfast with Exhibitors

8:30-8:45 am	Welcome & Introductions	Culture
	Jim Gajewski, MD, MACP President, OSMO

8:45-9:45 am	Finding Meaning and Personal Satisfaction in the Practice of Medicine	Culture
	Tait D. Shanafelt, MD, Stanford University

9:45-10:15am	Vision of Oncology Cancer Care and Future of Cancer Clinical Care	Culture
	Nancy E. Davidson, MD, SVP, CRD at Fred Hutch; Pres. & Exec. Director, SCCA

10:15-10:45 am	MOC	Culture
	Jamie H. Von Roenn, MD, FASCO ASCO VP, Education, Science and Professional Development

10:45-11:00 am	Break with Exhibitors	Culture
----------------	------------------------------	----------------

11:00-11:30am	340B	Culture
	Rena M. Conti, PhD Associate Professor at the The University of Chicago, Departments of Pediatrics and Public Health Sciences

11:30-12:00pm	What Just Happened? OMA Government Relations Director will give participants recap and insight into the 2018 Oregon Legislative Session, including changes to CCO's, legislation to combat the opioid crisis, and other bills that will affect physicians.
	Courtnei Dresser, Director of Government Relations at Oregon Medical Association

12:00-12:30 pm	Panel with Today's Speakers	Culture
----------------	------------------------------------	----------------

12:30-1:15 pm	Lunch with Exhibitors –Meeting Adjourned	Design/Fashion
---------------	---	-----------------------

1:15-5:00 pm	OSMO Board of Directors and Diamond Member Meetings	Frank
--------------	--	--------------