Recognizing Impactful People

The Annual Chamber Pillar Awards is set for April 29th! Save the date, but more importantly, send in your nominations! This is an opportunity for ANYONE to nominate ANY individual or organization that falls within the criteria of seven different awards. From an outstanding youth to an incredible first responder; a committed non-profit to an impactful small business, these awards provide well deserved and hard-earned recognition to those members of our community whose actions have gone above and beyond to make a difference in our county. Help us in honoring the members of our community that make up the heartbeat of Citrus.

Nominations are open through April 8th online at <https://tinyurl.com/Pillar2022>.

RECENT RIBBON CUTTINGS

Free Campaign & Community Leadership Training scheduled

The Citrus County Chamber of Commerce, in partnership with Florida Institute for Political Leadership (FIPL), an initiative by the Florida Chamber of Commerce, is pleased to host a virtual Campaign School & Community Leadership Training. This 3-part online training school is scheduled for March 29 - 31, from 5:30 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. each day.

The virtual training school is highly recommended for candidates and anyone interested in running for local or state office, serving their community, or managing campaigns. It is open to everyone, free to attend, and non-partisan. Participants are welcome to attend any or all days offered.

FIPL Campaign School & Leadership Trainings provide a comprehensive briefing on emerging local and state issues, teach attendees on what local opportunities are available for appointed or elected positions, offer guidance on how to prepare to run for office in the future, and provide training on how to run winning campaigns.

Presenters include state and local political experts, elected officials, university professors, and community leaders.
