A Commitment to Leadership Growth and Civic Engagement

The St. Lawrence Leadership Institute (SLLI) is an apolitical, not-for-profit program offered through the St. Lawrence County Chamber of Commerce. Its mission is to foster the development of emerging and existing leaders for the advancement of St. Lawrence County and its communities. SLLI is a 9-month program with classes held once per month from September to May. The scope and relevance of the program make it a valuable experience for lifelong and longtime residents of St. Lawrence County as well as for newcomers to the area. SLLI participants come from small businesses and major industries, government, elementary and secondary schools, as well as colleges and universities from both the public and non-profit sectors.

A Collaborative Role in Our Future

Participants benefit by achieving a better understanding of major public policy issues facing St. Lawrence County and its communities; by learning, practicing and improving their leadership skills in a supportive environment; and by gaining access to a diverse network of community leaders.

Personal Growth

Inspiring leaders know how to effectively articulate their vision for a preferred future to others. They know their own strengths and weaknesses. SLLI gives participants opportunities to develop and hone skills that guide their relationships with others. A candid self-assessment of one's leadership style, with its advantages and disadvantages, is an important first step in the program.

Program Details

Time Commitment

Class Schedule — The class meets the first Thursday of each month from September through May. Meeting locations will move around the county for exposure to the different communities.

Times: Sessions run from 4:00p.m. – 7:45p.m. with some exceptions. Dinner is served.

Attendance: Participants are required to attend all sessions, although SLLI recognizes that emergencies and conflicts do arise. The attendance policy permits a participant to graduate if they miss up to two classes and complete the required make-up assignment. Anyone who misses more than two classes may make up the sessions in the following year and receive a certificate of completion at that time.

Curriculum

The leadership institute program is carefully crafted with two very specific yet very interrelated topics. The first, is leadership and professional growth. Participants will examine key concepts related to leadership, and will practice implementation through self-reflection and activity based exercises.

Second, the program will examine the role we play as citizens of our community in key topics such as economic development, government, quality of life, and others. Guest speakers take participants on a journey of these issues by providing critical information for today, as well as how we can be a part of the solution for change in the future. A sample of topics can be found within the “three reasons to attend” section of this brochure.
