REMEMBERING DR. JEFF WEINLAND

On behalf of CFHLA, are very sorry to hear about Dr. Jeff Weinland, who passed away in his sleep on July 6, 2022. Jeff was an Assistant Professor since 2018 and a Lecturer from 2005 at the UCF Rosen College of Hospitality Management. In addition, Jeff was the President of the Board of the Vacation Villas at FantasyWorld for the past 18 years and created leading amenities that are now standard at many resorts. Jeff even introduced the Resort Mascot "Bear" two years ago to the FantasyWorld Resort.

Many of you will also remember Jeff, as a twenty plus year veteran of Bacchus Bash. Each year, Jeff would volunteer his time to support hospitality student scholarships by counting the cash. Jeff made a big difference to so many individuals within our industry and would try and help everyone he came into contact with.

Our heartfelt condolences go out to his family, the team at the FantasyWorld Resort, and the students and staff at UCF Rosen College of Hospitality Management.

A Celebration of Life will be held for Jeff at the end of August.

JULY MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON

On Tuesday, July 19th, CFHLA hosted our July Membership Luncheon at the Hyatt Regency Orlando.
(Thank You Brian Comes, Area Vice President).

This month's luncheon featured Orange County Mayor, Jerry L. Demings, who provided an update on the proposed one-penny transportation sales tax ballot initiative, which will appear on the ballot in November's General Election. This initiative would be a huge step forward in developing a dedicated source of funding for our current and long-term public transportation initiatives and infrastructure needs within our community.

Thank you, Mayor Demings, for your leadership and for the informative presentation!

Also, the lunch provided an opportunity to recognize our recent CFHLA Lodging and Allied Members of the Month honorees.
