Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 3. Special Meetings: Special meetings of members may be called by the Board of Directors, the Chair of the Board, or by five percent or more of the members, by written request (except when called by the Board) delivered in person or mailed by first class mail, addressed to the Chair, the Chair Elect, or the President/CEO at the Chamber office. The request shall specify the time desired for the meeting, not less than 35 or more than 90 days after the receipt of the request, and shall also state the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted at the meeting. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

A special meeting called by request shall be set by the Board of Directors on a date not less than 35 or more than 90 days after the receipt of the request. Within 20 days after receipt of the request, the officer who receives it shall cause notice to be given to all members entitled to vote at the meeting of the place, date and time of the meeting, and the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 4: Notices of Meetings. All notices of meetings of members shall be mailed not less than 20 or more than 90 days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the place, date, and time of the meeting, and (a) in case of a special meeting, the general nature of the business to be transacted, or (b) in the case of the regular annual meeting, those matters that the Board of Directors, at the time of giving the notice, intends to present for action by the members. Entire Section New

September 21, 2004*

If action is proposed to be taken at any meeting or approval of (a) removal of directors from office, (b) filling vacancies on the Board of Directors, (c) approval of contracts between the Chamber and a Director or a corporation, firm, or association in which a Director is also a director, or (d) amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, the notice shall also state the general nature of the proposal.

Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Notice shall be given by delivery in person or by mail addressed to the member at the address of the member appearing on the books of the Chamber or given by the member to the Chamber for the purpose of the notice. If there is not any such address, the notice shall be held for the member in the Chamber office. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 5 Record Date for Notice. Members at the close of business on the business date proceeding the day on which notice is given, and who are entitled to vote at the meeting, are entitled to notice of a meeting of members, subject to the power of the Board of Directors to fix a different record date. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 6. Quorum. The presence of five (5) percent of the voting power entitled to a meeting of members constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. The members present at a duly called or held meeting at which a quorum is present may continue to transact business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough members to leave less than a quorum, if any action taken (other than adjournment) is approved by at least the majority of the members required to constitute a quorum. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 7. Voting. Each member shall have one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members. Entire Section New September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

If a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the majority of the voting power represented at the meeting, entitled to vote, and voting on any matter (other than the election of Directors) shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 8. Inspectors of Election. Before any meeting of the membership at which an election shall take place, the Chairman of the Board, with the approval of the Board of Directors, shall appoint three (3) members, other than the nominees for office, to act as inspectors at the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting. The Inspectors shall (1) determine the existence of a quorum, (2) receive votes or ballots, (3) hear and determine all challenges and questions arising in connection with the right to vote, (4) count and tabulate all votes, (5) determine the results, and (6) do any other acts that may be proper to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all members.

Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 9. Action by Written Ballot. Any action that may be taken at any annual regular meeting or special meetings of members may be taken without a meeting and without notice, if a written ballot is distributed to every member entitled to vote on the matter on the day that the first written ballot is mailed or solicited. Such distribution of written ballots shall be in the manner provided for giving notice of a meeting of members. The written ballot shall (i) set forth the proposed action, (ii) provide an opportunity to specify approval or disapproval of any proposal, (iii) provide a reasonable time within which to return the ballot to the Chamber, (iv) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirement, (v) state the percentage of approvals necessary to pass the measure submitted, and (vi) specify the time by which the ballot must be received by the Chamber to be counted. A matter shall be approved by written ballot if the number of votes by written ballot received within the time specified equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the proposed action and the number of approvals received equals or exceeds the number of votes which is required for approval at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast is the same as the number of votes cast by written ballot. Any written ballot received by the Chamber may not be revoked. All written ballots shall be filed with the President/CEO of the Chamber and maintained in the records of the Chamber. The results of the written ballot shall be stated in the Chamber's next mailing to members. Entire Section New September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Section 10. Regular Board of Directors Meetings. No notice of any regular meeting of the Board of Directors is required, providing it is held at the principal office. The regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at a date and time approved no later than Decembers Board Meeting the year prior. If it is to be a different location, day, or time, at least 12 hours prior notice is to be given.

February 19, 2010

Section 11. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the Chair of the Board, the Chair-Elect or any three (3) directors. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Notice of the time and place of any special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given to each Director with four days notice by first class mail or 48 hours notice delivered in person or by telephone, text messaging or email at the Director's address shown on the records of the Chamber. The notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Section 12. Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of Directors (50% + 1) is a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the Directors at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board, except as a greater or lesser number required by law. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of Directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for the meeting. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 13. Committee Quorum. At committee meetings, except Executive Committee meetings, four or more committee members shall constitute a quorum. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 14. Executive Committee Quorum. At Executive Committee meetings, a majority of said committee shall constitute a quorum. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 15. Waiver of Notice. The transactions of any meeting of the Board of Directors, however called and noticed or wherever held, shall be as valid as though a meeting had duly been held after regular call and notice, if a quorum is present and if, either before or after the meeting, each of the Directors not present signs a written waiver of notice or a written consent to holding of the meeting or an approval of the minutes of the meeting. The waiver of notice or consent need not specify the purpose of the meeting. All such waivers, consents and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meeting. Notice of a meeting shall also be deemed duly given to any Director who attends the meeting without protesting, before or at the commencement of the meeting, the lack of notice to that Director. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 16. Adjournment. A majority of the Directors present, whether or not a quorum, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. If the meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours, notice of the adjournment shall be given before the time of the adjourned meeting to the Directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 17. Consent of Absentee. The transaction of any meeting, whether membership, directors, or committees, however called and noticed, shall be as valid as though had at a meeting duly held after regular call and notice, and if, either before or after the meeting, each member entitled to vote signs a written waiver of notice or a consent to the holding of such meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof. All such waivers, consents or approvals shall be made a part of the corporate records and filed therewith. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 18. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the Board. The written consent(s) shall be an official ballot prepared by the CORONA Chamber of Commerce office. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 19. Absences. A member of the Board of Directors who shall be absent from three (3) regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall automatically be dropped from membership on the Board, unless confined by illnesses or other absence approved by a majority vote of those voting at any meeting of the Board. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Article V. Board of Directors

Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 1. Meeting Place and Procedures. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held in the Chamber office or at any other place that is designated from time to time by the Board. Any meeting, regular or special, may be held without the physical presence of some or all Directors, by conference telephone or similar communications equipment, as long as all Directors participating in the meeting can hear one another. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

Section 2. Authority. The government of the Chamber of Commerce, direction of its work, the control of its finances and property, and the control and direction of its President/CEO shall be vested in a Board of Directors up to thirty (30), plus any duly elected officer(s) whose three (3) year term has expired by virtue of his/her office shall be an additional member of the Board of Directors and shall be entitled to vote as such. Section 7. Financial Statement. The President/CEO shall present to the Chair of Finance and Vice-Chair of Finance for the Board of Directors a monthly financial statement covering the operations of the preceding month. The Chair of Finance or the Vice-Chair of Finance shall report to the Board at each regular Board of Directors meeting the financial condition of the Chamber.

Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Section 8. Insurance. The Chamber of Commerce shall obtain such insurance as may be required to cover all its activities and, in such amounts, to cover expected liabilities. The Chamber of Commerce shall also require certificates of insurance from any person or firm contracting with or acting on behalf of the Chamber of Commerce. Revised September 21, 2004*

Article XI- Indemnification Clause Revised September 21, 2004*

A. Rights of Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by law, this corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and other persons described in section 5238 (a) of the California corporations code, including persons formerly occupying any such position, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding;" as that term is used in that section, and including any action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. "Expenses;" as used in this bylaw, shall have the same meaning as in section 5238 (a) of the California corporation's code. October 21, 2021

No member, officer or director of this Chamber shall be personally liable for its debts or other liabilities, and the private property of such individuals shall be forever and wholly exempt from any debts or liabilities of every kind and character of this corporation. Entire Section New September 21, 2004*

B. Approval of Indemnity. Upon written request to the board by any person seeking indemnification under section 5238 (e) of the California corporations code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in section 5238 (b) or section 5238 (c) has been met and, if so, the Board shall authorize indemnification. Revised September 21, 2004*

C. Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification pursuant to these bylaws in defending any proceeding covered by those sections shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for those expenses.

D. Insurance. The corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its officers, directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any officer, director, employee, or agent in such capacity or arising out of the officer's, director's, employee's, or agent's status as such.

Article XII. Miscellaneous

Section 1. Inspection of Records. The Chamber's books and records of accounts and minutes of the proceedings of its members, Board of Directors and committees of the Board shall be kept in the Office of the Chamber. The minutes shall be kept in written form (or electronic format) and the books and records of accounts shall be kept either in written form or in any other form capable of being converted to written form. The minutes and books and records of account shall be open to inspection upon written demand of any member at any reasonable time during office hours, for a purpose reasonably related to the member's interest as a member. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Section 2. Contracts, etc. How Executed. The Board of Directors, except as in the bylaws otherwise provided, may authorize any officer, or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances: and unless so authorized by the Board of Directors, no officer, agent or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable for any purpose or to any amount. Any such authorization shall be in writing and incorporated into the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

Section 3. Inspection of By-Laws. The corporation shall keep in its principal office for the transaction of business the original or a copy of the laws as amended or otherwise altered to date, certified by the secretary, which shall be open to inspection by the members at all reasonable times during office hours. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

Article XIII. Dissolution

Section 1. Procedure. The Chamber shall use its funds only to accomplish the objectives and purposes specified in these By-Laws, and no part of said funds shall insure, or be distributed, to the members of the Chamber. On dissolution of the Chamber, any funds remaining shall be distributed to one or more regularly organized or qualified charitable, educational, scientific, or philanthropic organizations to be selected by the Board of Directors as defined in Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Revised September 21, 2004*

Article XIV. Parliamentary Authority

Section 1. Parliamentary Authority. The current edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall be final authority for all questions of parliamentary procedure when such rules are not inconsistent with the Charter or Bylaws of the Chamber. Revised September 21, 2004*

Section 2. Revisions. These Bylaws may be amended or altered by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors, or by a majority of the members at any regular or special meeting, providing the notice for the meeting includes the proposals for amendments or alterations, and they shall be submitted to the Board or the members in writing at least ten (10) days in advance of the meeting at which they are to be acted upon. Revised September 21, 2004* October 21, 2021

If the Board of Directors fails to approve said amendment(s), then upon petition signed by at least twenty-five (25) active members said amendment(s) shall be submitted to the general membership for adoption by majority vote. The special membership meetings procedures as specified in Article IV, Section 2, shall be followed.
