

NACE ANNUAL STATE REPORT

State Association Name: ND Association of County Engineers For year of 2023

Number of Counties: 53 Number of State Assoc. Members: 194 (2023)

Number NACE Member: Not sure of total number of NACE members.

State Annual Meeting/Conferences held at: Grand International Inn in Minot, ND

on dates: February 1-3, 2023

Other significant meeting held during the year: In addition to the annual meeting the Executive Committee held several other meetings throughout the year at various location.

Notable achievements of State Association and/or Individual members:

1. Wayne Oien was named NDACE County Engineer/Superintendent of the year.
2. Blaine Laaveg and David Lym were elected to the NDACE Board of Directors.

Important Events in which State Association participated during year:

1. NDACE 73rd Annual Institute
2. ND Association of counties Annual Conference
3. _____
4. _____

Issues and topics of particular importance for which action and efforts of State Association were directed during the year:

State Issues:

2023 was a legislative year so we had many state legislative issues to deal with however the most important ones included Overload permit issues, Local government funding issues, bridge funding issues, and additional talks dealing with the Oil & Gas expansion in the state.

Issues and topics of particular importance for which action and efforts of State Association were directed during the year (CONTINUED):

National Issues: Funding (both long term and emergency)

---

---

---

---

---

---

Ideas/concerns to share with other NACE Members: _____

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Report Submitted by: (Name) Marcus J. Hall P.E.

(Title) Burleigh County Engineer Date: 4/11/24

Thanks, NACE Executive Committee