

Hall of Fame

The NICA Hall of Fame award honors distinguished achievements and outstanding contributions by any individual "to the health and wellbeing of this organization by any means, whether it be through hard work, influence, financial contribution or by any other positive method and/or whether they be concessionaire, associate, event management, administration or volunteer. All Nominees submitted by the deadline date will be evaluated by the Hall of Fame Committee and the top three will be referred to the NICA Board of Directors for the final decision." (Policies and Procedures, 2007)

Selection

Selection of the recipient(s) of the Hall of Fame Award is made solely by the NICA Board of Directors. The Board of Directors reviews all recommendations and may identify additional individuals for consideration. This award may be presented posthumously.

Conditions of Eligibility

- Nominator and Nominee must be NICA Members in good standing
- Nominee has identified with NICA and the fair and event industry for a minimum of ten years
- Nominee has shown substantial contributions to NICA through leadership, education, legislation, technical service and/or outstanding service to the associated industries and organizations serving the fair and event industry

Recommendation of Hall of Fame Nominee

Nominee: _____ Contact Phone: _____

Company / Organization: _____

Nominated By: _____ Contact Phone: _____

Supporting Documentation

- Reason for proposing the nominee
- A statement of the contributions made by the individual to NICA and the fair and event industry
- Record of his/her professional and industry achievements (articles, citations, letters, etc.)
- A headshot of the individual (if available)

All Recommendations Due by November 20

<small>For Office Use Only</small>
Nominator Member #: _____	Nominee Member #: _____