Guide

IN COOPERATION WITH THE SHAWNEE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND SUNFLOWER PUBLISHING, WE ARE PROUD TO OFFER THIS GUIDE TO SHAWNEE BUSINESSES AND BUSINESS RESOURCES.

What a year it has been! Our community has overcome so much through the struggles of COVID, workforce challenges, a tough pandemic economy, and much more. However, Shawnee has remained vigilant and is stronger than ever. Specifically, Chamber members have worked together in creative ways to bolster their own businesses and provide great offerings to their staff and customers. Each year, I am more impressed by what our Chamber family can accomplish.

Now is a great time to take a moment and make plans for the future. In doing so, I encourage you to utilize this resource guide to learn more about the great work of the Shawnee Chamber of Commerce and various facets of our city. Shawnee is poised for continued growth and greatness, and this resource guide exhibits the evidence of that trend.

As the Chamber finishes out its 75th year with a hurrah, make sure you engage with their staff to learn how you can make the most of your membership. Dedicate some time on your calendar to stop in for a networking event or maybe you're not a member quite yet! If that is the case, there is no better time than now to consider joining to see how you can both grow your business and invest in the community through this wonderful organization.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

AN EFFECTIVE BUSINESS STRATEGY

Chamber membership is an effective business strategy that has been making a difference in Shawnee for more than 75 years. The Shawnee Chamber of Commerce has a successful history of promoting the business interests of Shawnee and is the leading advocate for the growth and enhancement of our community.

Our members range from family-owned businesses to large national and international corporations. Chamber member representatives take an active role in our community, holding leadership positions within their companies and on the boards of community organizations.

Membership benefits are realized year-round and are designed to help businesses of all sizes grow and prosper. Immediate value is recognized with the chamber's marketing tools and business connections. Member advantages include numerous opportunities such as advocacy, networking and referrals, access, promotions and sponsorships, online and print directories, education and resources, and much more.

TOP 2% OF CHAMBERS IN THE U.S.

In 2020, the Shawnee Chamber earned a 5-Star Accreditation from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, placing it in the top 2 percent of chambers in the U.S. The Shawnee Chamber is one of only two chambers in Kansas with this top-level accomplishment. This honor distinguishes the high quality, expertise, and strong leadership displayed by an accredited chamber.

VISION

The Shawnee Chamber of Commerce effectively promotes the business interests of Shawnee and is the leading advocate for the growth of enhancement of our community.

MISSION

To develop and enhance our community through dynamic leadership.

Shawnee Economic DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

The Shawnee Economic Development Council (SEDC) is a division of the Shawnee Chamber Corp. and works collaboratively with the City of Shawnee to promote job creation, business expansion, and real estate development in Shawnee. The SEDC offers a number of value services to new and expanding enterprises including:

- ♦ Site selection market analysis
- ♦ Education and counsel on local and state business incentive programs
- ♦ Market data on the City of Shawnee, labor force, demographics and other economic information
- ♦ Liaison for additional business resources

The SEDC consists of a group of Chamber members who are committed to Shawnee's economic growth and development. Members of the SEDC have access to unique networking and business knowledge sharing opportunities, and are among the first to know about new business investments in Shawnee.

SHAWNEE Living

Shawnee is among the fastest growing cities in the Kansas and its 66203 zip code was recently listed as the fourth hottest in the country by Realtor.com. Shawnee is expected to remain a regional growth leader for years to come with a current population of approximately 68,292. This growth can be attributed to the value Shawnee provides in desirable Johnson County.

The city is committed to preserving its small town values as it plans for growth. While community services are modern and comprehensive, the property tax rate is low.

The city's winning combination of excellent schools, safe neighborhoods, and easy access to a wide range of entertainment and recreation opportunities provides those who live and work in Shawnee with an excellent quality of life.

POPULATION Growth

Between 2010 and 2020, Shawnee experienced a growth rate of more than 5 percent. During the same time, the 14-county metro population increased by 203,793 to 2,269,149. The KC metro overall is growing at a successful rate that indicates strong business and leisure opportunities. Today, the 14-county Kansas City metropolitan area population stands at 2,528,644.

A HISTORY OF GOOD Business

Shawnee has a good business climate that welcomes new businesses and nurtures existing ones. An educated work force, excellent highway accessibility, location within the Kansas City metropolitan area, variety of new or existing properties, and a thriving work environment all make Shawnee a desirable place to own and operate a business.

Contact the Shawnee EDC office for information on business incentives.

Along with the many outstanding features of Shawnee itself, the City of Shawnee and the state of Kansas have unique incentive programs to help qualifying new or existing businesses grow and prosper. Shawnee businesses, from large corporate headquarters to small business start-ups, are involved in the community because they love this city.

BUSINESS FACTS & STATS

- Shawnee's industrial vacancy rate is 6.3 percent. By air, Shawnee and the Kansas City metropolitan area are perfectly located: halfway to either coast—about a 3½-hour flight to New York City or L.A.
- Shawnee is 15–30 minutes from three airports: KC International (30 minutes), Johnson County Executive Airport (25 minutes), New Century AirCenter (15 minutes).
- Shawnee has excellent highway access: adjacent to I-35 and I-435 and K-7 with connections to I-70, US-69 and K-10, which means transportation costs are lower.
- Shawnee's central time zone allows for more daily business hours with the entire country.

SHAWNEE Education

Education is a major focus for both the City and the Chamber, and the two public school districts serving Shawnee are consistently ranked among the best in the country. In 2018, U.S. News & World Report named two high schools in USD 232 DeSoto and five high schools in the Shawnee Mission Public School District among the best high schools in America.

Several higher education institutions are in Johnson County and metropolitan Kansas City, just minutes from Shawnee. Numerous colleges are less than an hour away including:

- Kansas State University
- University of Kansas
- Benedictine College
- Baker University
- Ottawa University
- Rockhurst University
- William Jewell College
- University of St. Mary
- University of Missouri-Kansas City
- MidAmerica Nazarene University
- Park University

Additionally, the Shawnee Chamber works directly with the integral resource to our community: Johnson County Community College. JCCC provides a number of different degree programs for students at affordable rates. They are also well known for their certificate and continuing education programs that offer top-notch training for many looking to build new employment skills and advance their working knowledge base. JCCC's Continuing Education team also offers customized programs to local businesses for training of large groups of employees and will provide on-site programs at company offices if needed.
