that they would never forget. BBC greatly exceeded our group’s expectations.”

BBC created an exclusive experience, with award-winning Chef Donald Link cooking his version of his grandmother’s Louisiana fare on the banks of the bayou, with Zydeco music filling the air. Although the weather was not on our side, a little rain won’t stop us from having a good time down here! On the day of the event, BBC purchased every rain boot in the New Orleans area (350+) to save the event and our guests’ footwear!
