Food Vendor Application Participation Terms Agreement

Product: Homestead Days is a family-oriented event, featuring food, commercial, art, and craft vendors. Spaces are limited and will be on a first come, first serve basis. Every effort is given to limit overlap of items sold, allowing for a unique appeal to our visitors. Food vendors must meet inspection by Nebraska Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Dairies, and food, prior to start of operation. All applications must be complete.

Location and Hours of the Festival: Located at Chautauqua Park - Beatrice, Nebraska.

Placement of vendor as determined by event coordinators at Gage Development Coalition will be communicated to vendor prior to festival.

Vendors are allowed to set up Friday after 12 p.m., with advance arrangements made.

Chautauqua Park Show Hours: Saturday: 8:00 AM - 8:00 PM & Sunday: 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Vendors must be open during show hours, but can be open earlier and stay open later if appropriate. If vendor is unable to be open during show hours, advanced approval must be given by Gage Development Coalition.

Booth: Booth space is available on a first come, first served basis.

Placement is based on requests, submitted on the application form. No subletting of space or part of space is allowed. Booth rental fee is $25 for one day and $35 for two days. Prior to event, a map will be available for review. Map is tentative and is subject to change. Booth spaces are not drawn to scale.

Application & Notification: Applications must be received and paid for by June 6, 2026.

If you are rejected or placed on our waiting list, you will be refunded.

Insurance: All vendors must show proof of liability insurance, with the Gage Development Coalition and City of Beatrice listed as secondary insured.

Cancellation Policy: No refunds will be given after June 6, 2026
