

SOUTHFIELD AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

I Will...Be a Landmark

As a Landmark, you are one of the business leaders in our community and are on the leading edge of growth and development. Your engagement as a Landmark member demonstrates that you are an anchor in the business community, and you also serve to create an opportunity for economic growth. You create connections that empower our community.

Business leadership, tools for growth and a platform for success.

A Landmark receives exclusive Chamber services, including key sponsorships of our annual golf outing and State of the City. Additionally, as a Landmark member in our business community, you receive a sponsorship table at State of the City, monthly e-news ads and additional perks listed to the right.

Joining the Chamber has many great benefits, including the ability to engage with schools, government and local businesses. It is an excellent resource to connect with the community. Join today and become an active member in the Chamber and become connected.
