Board Chair/CEO Update

Lori Gallegos, First Credit Union Board Chair, Chandler Chamber of Commerce

As students head back to school and we turn the corner into fall, I want to express sincere appreciation for the educational options made available in Chandler! As a community, we're very fortunate to have educators and K-12 school districts focused on students and developing our future workforce. Beyond high school, the path to higher education or trade schools is also available within our dynamic community – providing opportunities for personal growth and lifelong learning.

Here at the Chandler Chamber, we have some remarkable events planned for our members: October 17th, we are presenting a special engagement with Arizona State University President, Michael Crow. ASU is known to be focused on complex global challenges related to economic competitiveness, entrepreneurship and global engagement. President Crow will be talking about the changing global workforce and its effects on not only Arizona, but the world.

The ASU's Center for Smart Cities and Regions' has set out to create positive futures for cities and communities by way of emerging technology as part of the Smart Cities and Regions Consortium. November 14th, the Chamber is thrilled to hold an Autonomous Vehicles Symposium from 7:30 am to 3 pm, featuring live demonstrations, interactive AV technology and informative panel discussions centered around autonomous vehicles.

Log-on our website for more information on these and many other events the Chandler Chamber will be presenting in the coming months.

Terri Kimble, President/CEO Chandler Chamber of Commerce @terri_Kimble

Chambers are famous for 'behind the scenes' work. Many times it takes a village to come together to solve problems, and make things happen. Recently, we ran across what could have been a 'road block', no pun intended with our downtown businesses and the construction on Arizona Avenue. The businesses were in danger of losing power for several hours which would definitely impact their profit margins. Several of our downtown businesses are restaurants and that would mean ruined food products.

After being approached by business owners about the situation, the Chamber stepped in and advocated for accommodations to the business owners—making the connections they needed for a solution. Many times communication is the key but more often than not, business owners don't know the correct path to take. That is where the Chamber of Commerce shines. After meeting with parties involved, a solution was created that streamlined a plan assuring smooth operation for all businesses during this time.

That is why it is important for our members to know that the Chamber is not just networking groups and events. We actively advocate for all of our businesses, whether it be permitting, signage, office space or policy. If you are in need of assistance with any issues you are experiencing, we are here for you. Remember we are member driven, business strong.

Chandler Mayor Update

Chandler Mayor Kevin Hartke
City of Chandler
@ChandlerAZMayor

Chandler City Council has recently launched the 2019-2024 Strategic Framework. Our vision is to be a world-class City that provides an exceptional quality of life and this plan will act as a guiding document to achieve that.

Through this commitment to our residents and businesses, five areas of focus emerged that will drive the strategic planning process and objectives. The Focus Areas include mobility, infill and redevelopment, neighborhoods, technology and quality of life.

City leadership is dedicated to ensuring a high quality of life, diverse job opportunities and safe neighborhoods that our residents have come to expect and value. Through public and private partnerships, participation at the state and national levels and constant civic engagement, we will continue to invest in the necessary improvements and changes that will take Chandler forward.

Class 36 Health Day

On Friday, July 19th, the Community Foundation Leadership Institute Class explored healthcare innovation, growth and service in Chandler. Their day was filled at Chandler Regional Medical Center. Jeff McBee, Dignity Health's Chief Operating Officer, began the day with a welcome. Then, Brian Galle, Dignity Health's Vice President, educated the class on the hospital's expansion plans. A "Stem Cell Therapy" presentation by Dr. Nabil Dib, Director of Cardiovascular Translational Research, and "Keep Me Safe" presentation by Gia DeMichele, Program Manager of Culture of Safety, was next on the agenda. Lastly, Bethel Orozco, Clinical Architect at Clinical Informatics rounded out the morning with a presentation on innovations in healthcare.

After lunch, the class was able to participate in a mock trauma scenario. They then went into the Neurosurgery Operating room for a deep brain stimulation presentation by Dr. Tsinsue Che, MD. After, the class became "Stop the Bleed" certified where they learned the skills to provide immediate bleeding control. Euly Smith, ACNP Stroke Program Coordinator spoke about Dignity Health's Primary Stroke Center. Finally, to finish out the day, the class met some of the sweet pet therapy dogs and learned about the volunteer and volunteers program.
