Dedicated to Empowering, Educating and Growing our Membership

The CCCIA thrives as a community dedicated to empowering, educating, and embracing its membership. Within our association, you'll find companies of all sizes, ranging from small businesses and subcontractors to custom and national builders, suppliers, mortgage lenders, legal counsel, and website designers.

Our overarching objective at the CCCIA is to position our members as industry leaders, representing the optimal choices in home building and facilitating the maximization of growth opportunities for each participant.

This guide serves as a tool to assist you in planning your involvement, adding value to your membership, cultivating relationships, and garnering recognition for your company within your industry circle.

From the onset of my tenure in this role, I recognized a unique opportunity to bring industry experience to our association and provide the well-informed perspective that our members need. My dedication lies in becoming the backbone of our organization, concentrating on membership goals, and establishing distinctive and cohesive relationships with each member.

Our industry confronts numerous local, state, and national challenges that can occasionally impede our members' progress. To ensure we maintain a prominent voice on these matters, I have immersed myself in various councils and regular meetings with local and state representatives. Remaining active and engaged at these levels allows our local association to stay ahead of the constantly evolving issues.

My ongoing commitment is to fortify our association by expanding our membership, reinforcing our councils and committees, developing our programs and services, and involving the upcoming generations while addressing the current needs of our members.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude for your unwavering support. The future looks promising, and I am delighted to contribute to it.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The Cape Coral Construction Industry Association focuses on advocating for its members and advancing the overall health and growth of the construction industry. A full list of accomplishments dating back to 1971 can be found on the website, visit www.cccia.org. Some major accomplishments the association has achieved over the past several years are listed below.

2018-2021

CCCIA Ad Hoc Seawall Committee formed to work with City Staff on revised Seawall Engineering Standards. Input led to significantly reduced engineering standards saving property owners thousands of dollars.

CCCIA Ad Hoc LDC Committee presents Position Paper to the Mayor and City Staff voicing opposition to various articles in the Land Development Code Adopted August 5, 2019. Numerous recommendations by the CCCIA were adopted for sensible growth in the city moving forward.

CCCIA's Code and Ordinance Committee works with the city to make recommendations to the newly introduced 60/40 rule. Recommendations allowed the construction of larger homes on pre-platted sites.

CCCIA Ad Hoc Pavement Committee voices its opposition to excessive road restoration requirements to damaged roads. This led to the tabling of the unreasonable requirements asked by the city and continued adherence to the engineering standards already in place.

CCCIA's Building Oversight Committee successful in negotiating a 25% reduction in all permit fees across the board saving contractors $2.1 Million dollars (based on 2019 permit numbers).

CCCIA encouraged the city to purchase Smart Phones for Building Inspectors out of the building reserve fund to increase the level of service to contractors.

2022

CCCIA Petitions the State of Florida for a Statement of Interpretation regarding disagreement with the City of Cape Coral's interpretation of FBC 312.1.1 and is successful in winning. FBC 312.1.1 has to do with means to achieve alternate methods of fall protection. This was not only a victory for Cape Coral but for the entire State of Florida as well.

CCCIA Staff flies to Des Moines, Iowa with Key City employees for a site visit at Plant Moran to give input to trouble shoot and optimize the EnerGov System.

Assist the city in setting up a work shop and interactive training on the EnerGov System

Lynn Boldissar Hired as the CCCIA's Executive Director

CCCIA Ad Hoc Irrigation Committee works for more than a year with city staff to recommend an Irrigation Ordinance that makes sense to the construction industry and the citizens of Cape Coral. Recommendations should lead to a smooth implementation of the ordinance.

Schedule quarterly meetings with the City Manager to discuss Construction Industry related problems.

CCCIA has a seat on the EnerGov task force to voice opinions and suggestions for the betterment of the system.

CCCIA Presents a comprehensive Position Paper to the Mayor and City Manager outlining the unacceptable levels of service given by the Development Services Department which the Building Department falls under. Progress was made in discussions as to how to achieve the level of service desired. Some of the items addressed were:

- Address HB1059 and a process for rebates on permits exceeding the statutory limit of 30 days.
- Delay the Permit Fee study to 2024.
- Continue efforts to correct problems associated with EnerGov.
- Change the method in which permit reporting is done to be more transparent.
- Improve and Prioritize Permit Prioritization and Review Goals.

2023

CCCIA Codes and Ordinance Committee works with Planning and Zoning to express its opposition to new interpretations as to allowable items in side setbacks. The city agrees with CCCIA and keeps the current standards.

CCCIA Ad Hoc Irrigation Committee is successful in completing reformed Irrigation Ordinance with the City Council voting in favor of and passing new ordinance.
