Help Waterfront Transform Lives this Thanksgiving

Waterfront Rescue Mission is looking for your help. This Thanksgiving, Waterfront Rescue Mission will once again host needy people for our Thanksgiving Banquet. But we need the public's help to make it happen!

Waterfront Rescue Mission's Annual Thanksgiving Banquet is 11 a.m.-1 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 28, at Waterfront Rescue Mission in Pensacola. Anyone hungry or alone is invited to attend. In Pensacola, we will serve over 1,000 meals to the needy, both at our Mission campuses, as well as with delivered meals to clients of Council on Aging and Westminster Village.

- We have a need for frozen turkeys that we can prepare now through Nov. 21st. As well as Large 6lbs cans of green beans and Corn. Drop off donated turkeys, Green Beans, corn or grocery gift cards at Waterfront Rescue Mission 348 W. Herman St.

Anyone who wishes to donate towards the meal or Waterfront Rescue Mission's ministry year round:

- Make monetary donation at waterfrontmission.org.
- Drop off or mail gift cards to grocery stores or wholesale clubs- 380 W. Herman St., Pensacola,
