EMMANUEL SHEPPARD & CONDON LAW FIRM ANNOUNCES A NEW SHAREHOLDER AND DIRECTOR

Pensacola, FLA. (January 4, 2020) – Emmanuel Sheppard and Condon (ESC) is pleased to announce that Suzanne Blankenship has become a Shareholder with the firm, and Benjamin T. Shell has become a Director with the firm.

Suzanne Blankenship is a Board-Certified Condominium and Planned Development Lawyer practicing law in Pensacola since 1996. Mrs. Blankenship’s practice involves serving as legal counsel for numerous condominium and homeowners’ associations throughout Northwest Florida. She also represents buyers, sellers, and lenders in commercial and residential real estate transactions.

Benjamin T. Shell is a litigation attorney who practices Personal Injury Law, including matters involving Automobile Accidents, Wrongful Death, Premises Liability and Product Liability. Mr. Shell also handles First Party Property (Hurricane) Claims, General Civil Litigation, and Bad Faith Litigation. Prior to joining ESC in 2017, Mr. Shell served as defense counsel for Fortune 500 insurance companies and corporate clients.

“Congratulations to Suzanne and Ben on their ascension to Shareholder and Director,” said Wes Reeder, ESC President. “This move by the Firm signals our recognition of the accomplishments of Suzanne and Ben in their respective practice areas and of our confidence that they are deserving of leadership roles with the Firm. It remains our Firm’s goal to continue to deliver high quality legal services to our clients, and the advancement of Suzanne and Ben to their new roles will certainly help us not only to meet that goal but to sustain it into the future.”
