FOLDS of HONOR

— ABOUT FOLDS OF HONOR —

HONOR THEIR SACRIFICE. EDUCATE THEIR LEGACY.

Folds of Honor is a 501(C)(3) nonprofit organization, rated a four-star charity by Charity Navigator and platinum on GuideStar, that provides educational scholarships to the families of military men and women who have fallen or been disabled while on active duty in the United States armed forces. Our educational scholarships support private educational tuition and tutoring for children in grades K-12, as well as higher education tuition assistance for spouses and dependents. Founded in 2007 by Lt Col Dan Rooney, a PGA Professional and F-16 fighter pilot in the Air Force Reserves who served three tours of duty in Iraq, the Folds of Honor is proud to have awarded nearly 29,000 scholarships in all 50 states and some US territories, including approximately 4,500 in 2020 alone. For more information or to donate in support of a Folds of Honor scholarship, please visit foldsofhonor.org

— FOLDS OF HONOR FAMILIES —

WHY WE DO IT

The late Maj. Shawn Campbell with his wife, Kelli, and their four children.

Major Shawn Campbell was a United States Marine Corps helicopter pilot who had deployed to the Middle East three times. He was tragically killed in a helicopter crash January 14, 2016 on a night time training mission off the shores of Hawaii. After his death, the Campbell family found solace with our local chapter in Kansas City, MO. The Campbell children are currently receiving scholarships and Kelli Campbell speaks for our organization sharing Shawn's story and what Folds of Honor has done for their lives.
