Keep Pensacola Beautiful's Paint Your Heart Out

A community beautification event happening at Bay Bluffs Park

May 7th, 2022 – PENSACOLA, FL. – Paint Your Heart Out is part of Keep America Beautiful's annual Great American Cleanup. This year, our Youth Advisory Council is taking over this event to help restore Bay Bluffs Park in Pensacola, Florida. KPB volunteers will be working to paint over the graffiti on the boardwalk and railings.

"We are excited to bring back Paint Your Heart Out for the 4th year! Bay Bluffs Park is a cornerstone in the community beloved by many. With the help of our Youth Advisory Council and our dedicated volunteers, we will restore this boardwalk to its former glory. Our hope is that everyone in the community will enjoy this beautiful path again the way that it was meant to be enjoyed." says Estee Davidson, Youth Advisory Council Member.

Bay Bluffs Park is a hidden gem in the Pensacola area encompassing 42 acres of nature preserves along Scenic Highway. Featuring trees, walking paths, and pavilions, this space is the perfect spot for a quiet walk to the coast. Comprised of red clay, the Bay Bluffs are a unique geological feature in Florida. Walkways and rest areas provide relatively easy walking access, parking and magnificent views of Escambia Bay. This Park is already beloved by so many in Escambia County, and with the help of local volunteers, Keep Pensacola Beautiful is committed to making this park as gorgeous as possible.
