Community Table Tennis Tournament Hosted by Zarzur Law in Downtown Pensacola Set for Nov. 5

3rd Annual “Ping Pong on Palafox” Event

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Sept. 9, 2022) — Zarzur Law, P.A., an award winning personal injury law firm based out of Pensacola, Florida, has partnered with the Pensacola Table Tennis Club and City of Pensacola Parks and Recreation Department to host its third annual “Ping Pong on Palafox” event on Saturday, Nov. 5, 2022 from 10am-5pm.* This outdoor event will be held on the street at the intersection of Palafox and Romana Streets in Downtown Pensacola. “Ping Pong on Palafox,” hosted by Zarzur Law, will include a table tennis “ping pong” tournament for all ages and levels, games, refreshments for players, and more! The round robin tournament will kick-off at 10am with kids age groups and adult divisions with cash* prizes for winners. Players can be anywhere from kids, novice recreational weekend players, all the way to competitive club members. The first 50 registered players are guaranteed a swag bag and T-shirt.

Businesses, organizations, bar/breweries, military, and more are encouraged to create teams of four, bring their tent, coolers and signs and battle for bragging rights and be the tops in team table tennis.

New this year is a FREE “Learn How To Play Table Tennis” Clinic for kids from 9a.m. - 10a.m. All participating kids will receive commemorative ping pong balls and swag.

Players can compete in a Table Tennis Tournament and play games all while supporting the Pensacola Table Tennis Club. Guests can learn tips and tricks from Table Tennis professionals and watch kids all the way to pros battle each other right in the heart of Downtown Pensacola.

The Pensacola Table Tennis Club is located inside the Fricker Community Center and is a non-profit club. “We invite anyone who loves the game to attend and learn more about the sport. PTTC has been a USATT affiliated club since 1996 and has been growing ever since.” Said PTTC President L.A. Johnston, “We are really excited to once again partner with Zarzaur Law, PA and bring this tournament to our city and show everyone what table tennis is about in a unique and fun way. Most people think they can only see table tennis on tv or during the olympics, but you can watch and play right here in Pensacola.”
