

Deputy County Attorney Kristin Hual Receives Writing Award at FACA Conference

During the Florida Association of County Attorneys conference on Thursday, June 29, Deputy County Attorney Kristin Hual received the Writing Award from the FACA Board of Directors. The Writing Award recognizes those who have made significant contributions to FACA and its program through their leadership and dedication.

“Kristin has worked very hard to serve not just the Escambia County Attorney’s Office, but also our colleagues across the state,” said Escambia County Attorney Alison Rogers. “It is a very well-deserved honor!”

The Florida Association of Counties is a Florida nonprofit corporation whose purpose is to provide a forum for research, advice and discussion in the development of local government law, including technical assistance. Learn more at faca.fl-counties.com.

Bob Shillinger, Monroe County Attorney and FACA President, presented the Writing Award to Kristin Hual, Deputy County Attorney for Escambia County, at the FACA Awards Luncheon on Thursday, June 29.
