LandrumHR Receives Prestigious Distinction from DBPR

PENSACOLA, Fla. – LandrumHR announced today a prestigious distinction from the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) for its commitment and dedication to the residents of the State of Florida.

At the October meeting of First Place Partners of Escambia and Santa Rosa Counties, Florida Secretary of the DBPR, Melanie S. Griffin presented LandrumHR Chief Financial Officer Johnathan Taylor with the proclamation.

“We are honored by this proclamation from the Department of Business and Professional Regulation. At LandrumHR, we stay focused on prioritizing the needs of our clients and the communities we serve,” said Britt Landrum, III, President & CEO of LandrumHR.

The proclamation included praise of LandrumHR for its more than 50 years of service to over 1,800 businesses in the nation, the recent naming of the company as one of Florida Trend Magazine’s Top 350 Businesses in Florida, and the notable business and community leadership background of its CEO, Britt Landrum, III.

“This acknowledgment underscores our commitment to fostering strong relationships and delivering exceptional service. It’s a testament to the dedication our entire team has for exceeding the expectations of our clients and we are proud to continue our legacy of excellence and business acumen in the State of Florida,” added Landrum, III.

Mentioned also in the proclamation was a commendation for the company’s founder, Britt Landrum, Jr., and recognition of LandrumHR as one of the Society for Human Resources Management’s (SHRM) 25 best small and medium companies to work for in America.
