

PRESS RELEASE

MEDIA CONTACT:

Mary Riker: (850) 484-1211

WSRE TO WRAP UP “STUDIOAMPED” SEASON WITH CONCERTS IN JANUARY

Red and the Revelers, Lolly Lee and Karli Ryan perform January 23–25

Shows will be recorded with a studio audience for the 14th season of the WSRE PBS music series

STUDIOAMPED

PENSACOLA, Fla., December 13, 2023 — WSRE PBS has announced the three remaining concerts to be performed for the 14th season of “StudioAmped:” Red and the Revelers on Tuesday, Jan. 23; Lolly Lee on Wednesday, Jan. 24; and Karli Ryan on Thursday, Jan. 25. All shows start at 7 p.m. in station’s Jean & Paul Amos Performance Studio at Pensacola State College. Doors open at 6 p.m. Admission is free, and donations for Manna Food Pantries will be collected at the door.

About the artists:

- Founded by Red Padilla, Red and the Revelers is an eight-piece, high-energy, swamp-soul band from Mobile, Ala.
- With an album release coming in February, Lolly Lee is a multi-instrumentalist icon from the music scene in Birmingham, Ala.
- Karli Ryan is a singer-songwriter from Milton whose streaming success was originally sparked by her 2019 “American Idol” audition.

Other shows recorded for Season 14 were performed in October by Grits & Greens (Hattiesburg, Miss.); Paul Vinson (Nashville, Tenn.); and from the Pensacola Beach Songwriters Festival: Kathie Baillie, Michael Bonagura and Alyssa Bonagura (Nashville, Tenn.).

“StudioAmped” is WSRE’s long-running music series featuring the original music of regional bands and artists. Bill Harrell is executive producer. The new season will premiere starting Thursday, March 21, at 9 p.m. on WSRE PBS and on the free PBS app.

###

ABOUT WSRE PBS: WSRE, a PBS member station licensed to the Pensacola State College District Board of Trustees and supported by the WSRE-TV Foundation, serves as a critical media source for trusted content and a safe media space for children to grow and learn.