FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EMMANUEL SHEPPARD & CONDON ANNOUNCES NEW DIRECTOR RACHEL L. THOMAS

Pensacola, FLA. (February 2, 2024) – Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon (ESC) is pleased to announce the appointment of attorney Rachel L. Thomas as a Director with the firm.

“The firm is very pleased to welcome Rachel L. Thomas to the ranks of Director,” said Wes Reeder, ESC Firm President. “Rachel has proven herself to be a skilled and capable attorney who represents her clients with passion, professionalism, and commitment to achieve the best outcomes for her clients. She is a valued practitioner within our firm and her advancement to director recognizes our confidence in her leadership abilities as well.”

Rachel L. Thomas joined Emmanuel Sheppard & Condon in August 2018 as an associate attorney. Rachel earned her bachelor’s degree magna cum laude in Business Administration along with her Juris Doctorate cum laude from the University of Florida.

Rachel is actively involved in the community, serving as a member of the Governance Board for Habitat for Humanity, an Executive Council member of the Escambia-Santa Rosa Bar Association, and a member of the Young Lawyer’s Division and Northwest Florida Association for Women Lawyers.

Due to her involvement and work ethic, Inweekly Magazine named Rachel a "Rising Star" in 2020, "Runner.Up Best Attorney" in 2021 and "Best Attorney" in 2022.

Rachel is licensed to practice law in Florida, Alabama, and Georgia. Rachel works with the personal injury group and serves clients across the Panhandle and Northwest Florida.
