

WARREN AVERETT RECOGNIZED ON USA TODAY'S 2024 AMERICA'S MOST RECOMMENDED TAX FIRMS AND ACCOUNTING FIRMS LISTS

Birmingham, AL. (February 23, 2024) — Warren Averett CPAs and Advisors, one of the largest accounting and consulting firms in the Southeast, has been recognized on USA Today's 2024 America's Most Recommended Tax Firms and America's Most Recommended Accounting Firms lists.

USA Today partnered with Statista to create the national lists of highly recommended firms for tax and accounting services; results are based on thousands of surveys and recommendations from both accounting professionals and clients.

While this is USA Today's inaugural accounting awards, this is the fourth year in a row that Warren Averett has been included on Statista's tax and accounting award lists. The distinction demonstrates the firm's continued commitment to excellent client service.

"Warren Averett is honored to be recognized by USA Today as one of their Most Recommended Tax and Accounting Firms," said Mary Elliott, CPA, Chief Executive Officer of the firm. "This recognition is a testament to the relentless hard work of our accountants and advisors. I could not be prouder of our team and their dedication to our clients."

Warren Averett consistently ranks among the top firms in the United States. Our CPAs, advisors and business professionals offer services that expand beyond traditional tax and accounting. Learn more about Warren Averett.

View USA Today's Most Recommended Tax and Accounting Firms.