FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Blues on the Bay features Still Standing: A Tribute to Elton John

(PENSACOLA, FL) Organizers of the free Blues on the Bay concert series are calling all tiny dancers on Sunday, May 5 for Still Standing: A Tribute to Elton John. Beginning at 6 p.m. at the Community Martine Park amphitheater, concertgoers are invited to witness an electrifying musical journey celebrating the legendary Elton John. This tribute show brings the timeless classics and infectious energy of Elton John’s music to life, captivating audiences across the US.

In partnership with the City of Pensacola Park & Recreation Department and the City of Pensacola, this five-concert series is free to the public and benefits the Blues Angel Music Foundation, which aims to make a positive impact on the Greater Pensacola Area through the promotion of music education, instruction, and therapy throughout the lifespan of any and every individual it touches. Spectators of all ages are welcome to enjoy captivating local and regional bands, food trucks, a 50/50 chance drawing, and more!
