2024 Building Industry Design Awards Nominations Open
Prestigious Awards Celebrate Outstanding Design & Construction Projects

HONOLULU (July 9, 2024) – BIA Hawaii is pleased to announce the 2024 Building Industry Design & Construction Awards (BIDCA) competition is open for nominations. For over 35 years, BIA has conducted a competition featuring the best in remodeling and new construction projects statewide. BIDCA is one of the most prestigious competitions in the state.

The distinguished awards celebrate the achievements of our industry professionals across a wide spectrum of building and construction categories. Categories encompass various aspects of the building and construction fields. Evaluation criteria include creativity, material utilization, craftsmanship, functionality, and design principles. Previous winners have integrated cutting-edge technologies and current market products. Categories span from sustainable living and upscale outdoor areas to commercial and retail spaces. This competition sparks innovation within our industry, fostering new and dynamic opportunities.

“The 2024 BIDCA Awards honor outstanding building and construction projects in Hawaii. The competition includes several design categories highlighting projects that exemplify and incorporate Hawaii living, featuring the design qualities unique to the Hawaii environment,” said Roseann Freitas, BIA Hawaii CEO. “The building industry remains strong in our commitment to innovate and create projects that reflect amazing architecture and design.”

The BIDCA awards honor the professionals who build our communities with dedication, perseverance, and creativity. For more information and to apply visit:
