

BY-LAWS
Of the
League City Regional Chamber of Commerce

Article I: Name and Purpose

Section 1.1 Name

This Chamber, incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, shall be known as the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce. (“Chamber”) Its principal office and place of business shall be the City of League City, Galveston County, Texas. The Chamber shall service the City of League City and the surrounding region. The name of this organization shall be the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Section 1.2 Purpose and Mission

The Chamber has as its objectives to build a dynamic and expanding economy, promoting community development, and improving living standards while strengthening and improving the free competitive enterprise system, promoting, and supporting the businesses and resources of the region and preserving our representative and limited government.

Mission: To expand our region’s prosperity by empowering businesses, fostering connections, and driving economic growth.

Our Vision: To help our region become the most prosperous in Texas.

Section 1.3 Limitations

The Chamber shall be non-profit, non-partisan and non-sectarian, but will concern itself with governmental affairs when it is in the best interests of the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber shall observe all local, state, and federal laws which apply to non-profit organizations as defined in Section 501 c (6).

1.4 Governing Instruments The Chamber, and all meetings of the organization, shall be governed by the following documents in order of supremacy:

1. The laws of the United States and the State of Texas
2. Chamber Articles of Incorporation
3. Chamber Bylaws
4. Chamber Governance Policies adopted by the Board of Directors
5. Chamber Human Resources Manual
6. Robert’s Rules of Order
7. Powers To the extent an inconsistency arises between these documents, the higher-ranking governing document shall supersede.

Article II: Membership

Section 2.1 Eligibility

Any person, corporation, partnership, or other legal entity (hereinafter “Individual Members”) shall be limited to those persons who do not conduct any business or maintain an office for the practice of their profession in the area served by the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Section 2.2 Membership Dues

Completion of an application and payment of annual dues in full for all new members or with pre-approved quarterly payments for renewing members will be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval. Memberships begin with payment of dues and will be renewed annually.

Section 2.3 Member Representative and Voting

Each business membership in good standing shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members, which shall be cast by its designated representative. Individual memberships shall have no vote.

Section 2.4 Change of Representatives

Any Member of the Chamber shall have the right at any time to change any or all its representatives upon written notice.

Section 2.5 Membership Benefits and Refunds

It is required that a Chamber member be in good standing in order to receive the many benefits that the Chamber offers. The Chamber shall not be obligated to refund any dues paid unless the member requests a refund in writing within sixty (60) calendar days of payment. Refunds will be issued on a pro rata basis.

Section 2.6 Referrals

- a. Since the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce is supported by many firms which are in competition with each other, a list of members and services can be located on our website or other media available in the chamber offices.
- b. The Chamber does not refer or endorse any specific member.

Section 2.7 Termination

- a. Any member may resign from the Chamber upon written notification to the Chamber's Board of Directors or President/CEO.
- b. Any Member whose dues or any outstanding debt remain unpaid for 121 calendar days after their due date shall be dropped from the membership of the organization by authority of the Chamber's Board of Directors, unless extended for good cause.
- c. Membership may also be terminated by the Chamber's Board of Directors for cause. Any member can be expelled by a majority vote of the Board of Directors present and voting after notice and opportunity of hearing for conduct unbecoming of a member or for actions detrimental to the interests of the Chamber.
- d. Any sponsorship paid prior to termination is non-refundable.

Section 2.8 Membership Reinstatement

Subject to section 2.2. and 2.5, should a Member request to rejoin the Chamber, they will be considered "reinstated" once all financial obligations due to the League City Regional Chamber have been satisfied.

Article III: Membership Meetings

Section 3.1 Annual Meeting

The annual membership meeting of the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce shall be held each year, with the date, place, and hour to be designated by the Chamber President/CEO.

Section 3.2 Special Membership Meetings

Meetings of the members may be held at such times as the Chamber President/CEO, Chair of the Board of Directors may determine, or upon written request of twenty-five (25) percent of the members in good standing, The notice shall contain a statement of the purpose of the meeting and shall be issued at least five (5) business days and not more than sixty (60) calendar days preceding the meeting. Meeting notices can be emailed, sent electronically, or mailed.

Section 3.3 Parliamentary Procedure

All questions of parliamentary procedure shall be decided according to the most recently adopted Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 3.4 Voting

Each business membership in good standing shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the members, which shall be cast by its designated representative. Individual memberships shall have no vote.

Article IV: Board of Directors

Section 4.1 Authority

(a) The government of the Chamber, the direction of its work, and the control of its property and finances shall be vested in its Board of Directors, who shall meet on a date prescribed by the Board.

(b) The Board of Directors shall adopt such policies and procedures for conducting the business of the Chamber and for carrying on its work as may be consistent with the By-Laws and state and local laws.

(c) The Board of Directors shall submit to the membership an annual report on the work of the Chamber. The report shall be provided at the annual meeting and/or by mail or electronic mail.

(d) The Board of Directors shall have power to fill all vacancies occurring on the Board between the annual elections. A Director resigning during his/her term may be replaced by nomination by the Chair of the Board with approval by simple majority of the Board of Directors.

(e) Absence from three (3) regularly scheduled Board of Director meetings during any annual term as a Director without an excuse deemed valid by the Chair of the Board and so recorded by the Board of Directors shall be construed as a resignation.

Section 4.2 Board Membership

The Chamber's Board of Directors shall consist of the following membership including:

- a. The Board of Directors shall be comprised of a minimum of ten (10) not more than twenty (20) members elected at large from the voting membership.

- b. Directors will be elected to four (4) year terms.
- c. Board members will be staggered to have tenured representation each year.
- d. The Board of Directors may approve term extensions due to extenuating circumstances. Such additional terms will be for increments of one (1) year, up to a maximum of 3 years.
- e. The Board of Directors shall at any time select Ex Officio members (up to a max of 5). Ex Officio members of the Board shall attend Board meetings (excluding certain executive sessions as determined by the Executive Committee). Ex Officio members are not voting members.

Section 4.3 Officers of the Board of Directors

The following Officers will be elected by the current Board of Directors from its own membership: Chair of the Board, Chair Elect of the Board, Treasurer and Secretary. Officers are elected for a one (1) year term. Officers may serve for one additional term in the same office, if duly elected by the board. Election of Officers shall be completed by October 1 of each year.

Section 4.4 Regular Meetings of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall meet regularly at a time, date and place agreed upon by the majority of the Board (electronic or in person).

Section 4.5 Quorum

A simple majority of the Directors must be present to constitute a quorum of said body. A Director present by proxy at a meeting will not be counted toward a quorum. Action may be taken by affirmative vote so long as a simple majority is present.

Section 4.6 Nomination and Election of Directors

The selection of nominated Directors for elections is as follows:

- a. The Nominating Committee will consist of the President/CEO, plus five (5) members, consisting of three Directors and two members in good standing. The Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the Chair of the Board no later than the regularly scheduled monthly meeting of the Board of Directors in August of each year to nominate candidates for election to the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee shall elect a member of the Nominating Committee as the Chair of the Committee.
- b. Prior to the September monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chamber shall publicize to the Membership that a committee has been formed and request nominations for board positions. The acceptance of nominations shall close ten (10) business days after notification to the Membership. The Committee may add the names of any qualified individuals for consideration at their discretion. The Nominating Committee will prepare a slate of nominees for presentation at the September Board meeting.
- c. Prior to October of each year, the Membership shall be notified by ballot of the names of the persons nominated as candidates for Directors. In such notification, the process to write-in nominees shall be explained whereby any Member can make a nomination through the write-in method, even though not proposed by the Nomination Committee. Members then have a 10-day period after the notification to submit their Board nominees.

- d. The nominating committee shall develop the full list of nominees (slate of nominees), including those nominated by members (write-ins), and at the next regularly scheduled board meeting, the Directors shall vote and approve the newly elected Directors.
- e. Newly elected and returning Directors will be sworn in at or the first Board meeting of the new year.
- f. Should a Director change employment and their new employer is not a Chamber Member or the Director is not the designated representative of a member business, the Director shall have thirty (30) calendar days to (1) resign their Board position, (2) become the designee of their new employer or, (3) purchase a personal membership.
- g. Orientation and Training: Each Member voted to the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors is required to attend an orientation meeting in January of their new term. Board training will occur before the first scheduled Board meeting of the new year or swearing in of the new Board, whichever is the latter.

Section 4.7 Vacancies

Vacancies may be filled at the discretion of the Executive Committee, with approval by majority vote of the full Board of Directors. Directors elected to fill vacancies shall hold the position for the unexpired term once being sworn in.

Section 4.8 Special Meetings of the Board

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the Chair of the Board, an Officer of the Board, or by written request by a majority of the Directors, providing that a written notice or e-mail stating the purpose of the meeting shall be issued to each Director not less than twenty-four (24) hours preceding the meeting. Less notice may be given in cases of emergency. Only the purpose stated in notice shall be discussed at the meeting. The Chair will determine the location and mode of the meeting (electronic or in person). In special cases decisions requiring board approval may be proposed and approved via email.

Section 4.9 Executive Session

Executive Sessions are confidential to all who are present and allow for the Board of Directors to discuss various confidential matters affecting the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce. When the Board of Directors for the League City Regional Chamber of Commerce has meetings, or special meetings called for this purpose, Executive Sessions may be on the agenda, or the Chair of the Board may call one. Additionally, any Director may move for the Board of Directors to enter an Executive Session at the end of a regularly scheduled Board meeting with consent being granted by a majority vote of the Board. Prior to entering Executive Session, all non-board members will leave the room; 1. Any board member with an actual or perceived conflict of interest may be excused from the executive session. 2. Legal counsel of record for the Chamber should not be in the room unless specifically invited by the Chair of the Board 3. The Board of Directors agrees by majority vote that there should be a special invitee. Taking of minutes is required during these sessions and any votes taken are to be recorded.
