

The Derby Chamber of Commerce Privacy Policy

While the Derby Chamber of Commerce automatically collects information about your device and internet request, we do not collect any personal information about you when you visit our site unless you choose to provide the information. Your personal information will not be sold, rented, loaned or shared with any outside person or organization. Local businesses may petition us to contact site users who have previously requested information about their particular organization. Other websites that are linked to the Derby Chamber of Commerce website will have different and separate privacy policies.

Protecting the privacy of our website visitors is very important to the Derby Chamber of Commerce. The Derby Chamber of Commerce does not collect or track personal information from Derby Chamber of Commerce website visitors, except where specifically indicated on the relevant web pages.

Generic information from server logs may be used to track and analyze the number of hits to the site and to find out what types of browser software is used by visitors. This data does not contain any personally identifiable information and will be used only in aggregate form and used solely for improving website design.

The information you send us

We will not collect personally identifiable information from you, other than what you supply to us on a voluntary basis. If you choose to send us an email or complete a web-based form, that information is stored in an employee's email server or in an online database. We use that information to respond to your request or to provide interaction on our website. Supplying such information is entirely voluntary. The Derby Chamber of Commerce will not knowingly accept personally identifiable information from visitors under the age of 18 who have not obtained permission from their parents or guardians.

Photos, images, and videos

The Derby Chamber of Commerce uses photographs, images, and videos at its functions and at other public and Chamber events. The Derby Chamber of Commerce tries to respect the privacy of everyone and will only post photos and videos from events that are open to the membership or general public. These photos, images, and videos will not be used to sell or promote any products or services. If there is a photo, image or video of you that you do not want on the Derby Chamber's website or social media pages, you will need to notify the Derby Chamber staff in writing at info@derbychamber.com. Please allow 48-72 hours for the photo, image or video to be removed.

Use of Cookies

To help make our sites more responsive to the needs of our visitors, we invoke a standard feature found in browser software, called a "cookie," to assign each visitor a unique, random number, an anonymous user ID that resides on your device. The cookie does not identify the visitor, just the device that a visitor uses to access the site. Unless you voluntarily identify yourself (through registration, for example), the Derby Chamber of Commerce will not know who you are, even if we assign a cookie to your device. A cookie cannot read data stored on your device.

Acceptance of the Derbychamber.com privacy policy
