

Fundraising Do's and Don'ts

- Corporations May Not Contribute to the Campaign Fund
 - They may not contribute financially
 - Corporations cannot ask their employees to work or distribute information on behalf of the Fund
 - Corporations may offer their space as meeting rooms for the Fund
- Employee Solicitation
 - Must be in writing
 - company or personal email can be used but avoid mass emails
 - Must be nonpartisan in nature
 - Must not promote any particular candidate or group of candidates
 - Must state that there is no minimum contribution
 - Must state that any contribution, or lack thereof will in no way impact the employee's employment
 - Any response from the employee must remain confidential and cannot be sent to the employee's supervisors or manager.
 - If any employee has questions about the solicitation, they can be answered in writing or verbally.
- Contributions are not tax deductible
- Contributions to the fund are not eligible for the Minnesota Political Refund Program
- Contributions are public information – the fund reports to the Campaign Finance Board
- Individual contributions can not be directed to an individual candidate

Please Note

For the ACEC/PAC (National) – one member of your firm will have to complete the prior approval form.