

2026 OCA Clinic
Tuesday, July 28, 2026
12:00

Bethesda Inc. Special Luncheon featuring Keynote Speaker Hollie Stuart

Presentation Title: OCA Recognition Luncheon Honoring Bethesda Inc.

Presentation Summary: The Oklahoma Coaches Association will host a special recognition luncheon at the 2026 OCA Clinic honoring Bethesda Inc. for its longtime work supporting survivors of childhood sexual abuse through healing, advocacy, and education. Keynote speaker Hollie Stuart, author of I Can See for Miles, will speak about resilience and the important role coaches and mentors play in helping young people overcome adversity. The event highlights Bethesda's partnership with schools, coaches, and counselors across Oklahoma to provide trauma-informed support for vulnerable children.

Bio: Hollie Stuart is a certified human resources professional, author, and award-winning speaker. She recently published her memoir I Can See for Miles, which has been selected as a finalist for best nonfiction for the 2023 Oklahoma Book Awards.

An avid world traveler, adventurer, marathoner, and outdoors enthusiast, Hollie is fulfilling her goal of running a marathon on all seven continents, most recently completing the 2022 Queenstown Marathon in New Zealand. Her riveting memoir regales her journey to Tanzania, where she completed the 2017 Mount Kilimanjaro Marathon and scaled Mount Kilimanjaro, the tallest freestanding mountain in the world.

Here's the link for the ticket sales for the luncheon:

<https://ticketstripe.com/events/7948108982859366>

$30 for early bird

$40 for July ticket sales