When your business supports CoSA's programs and services, it elevates its ability to

- Engage with State and Territory Archives: Interact with the leadership and staff of the government archives of the 50 states, 5 territories, and the District of Columbia. These key leaders have final decision authority on over half a billion dollars in spending annually.
- Contribute to Strong Government Archives: Impact how state and territorial archives document government, promote history, and secure individual rights by providing expertise and solutions for effective records management and preservation and broad access to diverse constituents.
- Share Industry Insights: Corporate sponsors are viewed as solution providers and subject matter experts in their respective areas. Share your services and products with archives decision-makers and receive feedback on retaining customers year over year.
