

NOVEMBER POTPOURRI CLE

November 7, 2025

John J. Hemmingson Center
Third Floor Ballroom
702 East Desmet Avenue
Spokane, WA

8:30 – 8:45 a.m.

Check-in & Coffee Service

8:45 – 9:45 a.m.

New Employment Updates

Kimberley A. Kamel, Paine Hamblen LLP

9:45 – 9:50 a.m.

Transition Break

~~9:50 – 10:50 a.m.~~

~~Bankruptcy & Family Law: What All Family Law Attorneys Should Know~~

~~Judge Frederick P. Corbit & staff, U.S.~~

10:50 – 10:55 a.m.

Transition Break

10:55 – 11:55 p.m.

10 Commandments When You Have a Military Family Law Case.

Lisa Brewer

12:05 – 1:10 p.m.

Lunch Break

1:10 – 2:10 p.m.

Privacy Law and AI Governance

Gabriel Buehler

2:10 – 2:15 p.m.

Transition Break

2:15 – 3:15 p.m.

Electronic Discovery

Nicholas Ulrich, Attorney at Law

SPEAKER BIOS

LISA E. BREWER is a family law practitioner in Spokane, Washington, practicing throughout eastern Washington. Her practice includes all family law issues. Lisa has developed a focus on matters of vital importance to military families including long distance parenting, Military and FERS pension, TSP Retirement division, the SBP, and Base privileges.

GABRIEL BUEHLER, ESQ. is In House Counsel, Pipl Inc & Founder of Buehler Law, PLLC. Mr. Buehler practices in the area of Business, Privacy, and Technology law with an emphasis on emerging AI issues. As in-house counsel for Pipl Inc, a global fraud prevention and identity verification company, Mr. Buehler oversees the company's privacy program and AI governance. As founder of Buehler Law PLLC, Mr. Buehler works with small businesses in the inland northwest on a wide range of issues including corporate governance, formation, dissolution, funding, contract matters, privacy audits, and AI governance. Mr. Buehler works extensively with the American Bar Association as vice-chair of multiple committees dealing with privacy and cybersecurity issues, and currently serves on the ABA WSBA house of delegates..

JUDGE FREDERICK P. CORBIT is a Bankruptcy Judge for the Eastern District of Washington, with chambers in Spokane, and serves on the Bankruptcy Appellate Panel for the Ninth Circuit. Prior to taking the bench, Judge Corbit practiced law in the Pacific Northwest. Most recently he practiced law in the Seattle office of the Northwest Justice Project where he provided civil legal services to persons of limited financial means. Prior to joining NJP, he was a shareholder in the national law firm of Heller Ehrman LLP, and represented many companies and individuals in connection with issues related to the acquisitions and sales of businesses, creditor/debtor matters, and business litigation. He is a frequent lecturer on legal matters, has published numerous articles in legal journals, was an adjunct professor at Seattle University School of Law, and is an adjunct professor at Gonzaga University School of Law. Judge Corbit frequently serves as a settlement judge in a wide range of cases pending before United States District Judges and other Bankruptcy Judges in several districts. Judge Corbit received his undergraduate degree from University of Washington and his law degree from UCLA School of Law.

Kimberly A. Kamel, Of Counsel

717 W. Sprague Avenue, Suite 1200

Spokane, WA 99201-3505

(509) 455-5062

kak@paineambly.com

Practice Harassment complaints
Expertise: ADA/AA and FMLA problems
FLSA litigation
Unemployment and Labor and Industries claims
Discrimination and retaliation complaints
Wrongful termination claims
Wage and hour audits
Unfair labor practices

Practice Summary: Kim Kamel is a labor and employment attorney. She provides day-to-day employment advice, drafts contracts, handbooks, responds to EEOC and HRC Charges and also litigates cases.

Kim represents clients in administrative and court litigation in Washington and Idaho. She has successfully defended business clients in Human Rights Commission complaints, unemployment and EEOC claims, and industrial insurance claims in federal and state courts in Washington and Idaho.

Kim has extensive experience related to wage and hour claims, discrimination claims, and labor disputes and negotiations. She also counsels employers on day-to-day labor and employment issues.

Kim frequently represents employers in all aspects of employment defense litigation, Kim also provides consulting services which include day-to-day advice regarding employment issues. She conducts investigations and provides training and compliance advice and advises management in labor negotiations.

Education: Gonzaga University, J.D. cum laude, 1999
University of California Irvine, B.A., 1994

Admissions: Washington State Bar
Idaho State Bar
U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Washington
U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington
U.S. District Court, District of Idaho

Memberships: Spokane County Bar Association
Leadership Spokane, Board Member
YMCA Employee Committee Member
Washington Women Lawyers, Former President
Gonzaga Law Review, Former Membership Support Chair
Washington State Bar Association, Labor & Employment Section, Former Executive Committee Board Member
Idaho State Bar, Employment and Labor Law Section
SHRM Member

NICK ULRICH began his legal career in 2015 as a law clerk for the Washington Court of Appeals. He served as a public defender and in private practice before joining the Washington Attorney General's Office in 2020. At the Washington AGO he has served in numerous roles within the Torts Division of the AGO, beginning as a line attorney and promoting to a team leader and then section chief, he is now the Section Chief of the Litigation Support Section of the Torts Division, overseeing several teams and facilitating the division's training and development programming and opportunities. He has handled numerous and varied cases against Washington State or its agencies and argued before all levels of court in Washington. Separate and apart from his work at the Washington Attorney General, Nick has worked as a Pro Tem. Judge or Commissioner for several courts in Spokane County, WA, including the District and Superior Courts, handling numerous preliminary criminal hearings and various types of civil matters.

Nick received his undergraduate degrees from Washington State University, where he graduated Magna Cum Laude and Phi Beta Kappa with degrees in theoretical mathematics and mathematical physics. He received his law degree from the University of Washington School of Law, where he graduated Order of Barristers. When not working, he enjoys hiking, skiing, golfing and spending time with family.