Start your business in Oregon!

Planning to relocate or expand your business? Take a look at what the Oregon area has to offer!

Commitment to Smart Development

Both the Oregon Area Chamber of Commerce and the Village of Oregon are committed to economic development in the Oregon area, engaging in ongoing economic development efforts to attract new businesses, create job growth and assist local businesses.

Economic growth helps reduce the tax burden and lifts the quality of life for all. The Oregon Chamber and the Village of Oregon work well together in partnership towards this common goal.

Expedited Timelines

We understand that delays cost money. Here in Oregon, you can expect an expedited approvals process. Unlike some other communities, we won't bounce your project from committee to committee over the course of months or even years. We can schedule special meetings or joint meetings where applicable to accommodate your timeline. If the project fits our community, we'll work hard to minimize the time it takes to go from renderings to shovels in the ground. We've got some great sites and development incentives available for the right projects and we'd love to talk about relocating or expanding your business in the Oregon area!

Contact Us

For more information about the local business environment, business assistance and incentive programs, contact the Oregon Area Chamber of Commerce or Village to talk about your project. We'd love to show you why your business should call the Oregon area home!

The Streets Of Oregon

HISTORY

Early streets in Oregon were merely dirt roads - muddy when it rained or snowed and dusty when it was dry. Horse and buggy was the primary mode of transportation. In 1905, the village purchased a quarry and stone crusher to keep streets in good condition. Rock was extracted from the quarry just outside the village. By 1910, automobiles came into general use. Soon after, a problem of rock particles being picked up on the rubber tires evolved. They went back to road grading and ground gravel (instead of raw gravel).

In 1923, the first concrete street was laid on Copenhagen Street (now Jefferson Street) by Elmer and Adelbert "Deb" Peterson and Chris and Jack Johnson. They laid 50 feet a day using a hand mixer. All hand labor - no machines. In 1926 concrete streets ran the entire length of North and South Main Streets.

1873 Street Map

Muddy dirt street with ruts left by the wheels of buggies

Stone quarry - near what today is Madsen Circle

Copenhagen Street - now Jefferson Street

In 1915, this Automobile Group motored to Lake Kegonsa

In 1873, named streets were: N Main; S Main; Janesville St; West St; Spring St; and Market St. On the north side: First St, Second St, Third St., and Fourth St. On the south side: South First St; South Second; and South Third St.

- Numbered streets on the west side of N Main were renamed for U.S. Presidents:
 - Second, Third and Fourth became Johnson, Lincoln, and Monroe.
- N First Street renamed W Grove St to match (East) Grove St directly across N Main.
- On Oregon's south side,
 - South First became Elm Street, South Second became Washington St and South Third St became State St.
- Jefferson St had several previous names: Paoli Road; West Street, and Copenhagen Street

(Note: Research has failed to determine the year the streets were renamed. However, a reference to "new street markers" in the Oregon Centennial booklet (1841-1941) might indicate that it was around 1940-1941.)

Names of early settlers, Abraham Kierstead, William Soden, and Charles Waterman have streets which bear their names.

Streets are commemorated for American Revolutionary War veteran, Nathaniel Ames, and Charles Netherwood, a Civil War Veteran. Charles Waterman purchased two hundred acres of land in 1849 and donated land for the Presbyterian Church on N Main Street and for the downtown Waterman Park, which was dedicated to Justin Waterman's wife, Annie Ozburn Waterman.

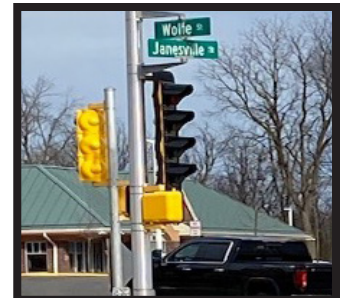

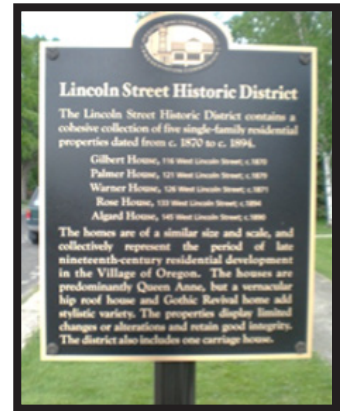

Most every town has a Main Street that represents the central business district in the town. While Oregon's Main Street could aptly apply here as well; there is the added co-incidence that it also may be in honor of an early settler and Justice of the Peace, Robert Palmer Main; or even his son, Edwin Dakin Main who served as Village President from 1901-1903.

Wolfe Street is named for the first president of the village, Manuel Wolfe who served terms from 1883-1884 and 1889-1890. Although not officially designated as such, Wolfe Street/Hwy MM south toward the Village of Brooklyn, was locally referred to as the "Hogback," presumably for the topographical lay of the land.

Madsen Circle and Madsen Road are named for F.E. Madsen who established a rural development on West Netherwood Rd. He was the longest serving village president; 1937-1973; who also established local business establishments and was a partner in the Waterfall Restaurant and Motel.

Developers have typically had the privilege of naming the streets in their development with approval from the Village. In many instances, streets were named for people who previously owned land in that area or were well-known citizens of Oregon:

- Robinson Road; Ellen Court, Thomson Lane – Ellen Peterson Robinson, granddaughter of early settler, George Thomson.
- Cell Court: Atty. Chuck Cell
- Scott Street, Miller Drive – Scott and Selma Miller, previous owners of the farmstead where these streets are located
- North and South Perry Parkway - Perry Netherwood, well-known for delivery of milk in early years
- Nygaard Street - Norman Nygard owned property on Lincoln Street
- Gail Court, Dale Drive, Jill Court – children of Ivan and Jo Gregory – who established the Stable Supper Club in Oregon
- Thompson Drive – Harold and Pat Thompson, parents of Mary Jo Lease, developer of Merri-Hill Addition
- East Richards Road – Either Roy Richards – Village President 1913-1915 or Owen E. Richards, Bank of Oregon President
- Walter St, Peterson Trail, Nels Circle, Langland St, Denmark St, Bettebo, Lindelse - Walter Peterson farm on Hwy CC
- Blended Names:
 - Veldor Street - Velma Waefler and Dorothy Gasner - Waefler and Gasner real estate developers
 - Cledell Street – A blend of Cletus and Adella Brown – Cletus Brown local barber and farmer in Oregon
 - Hayler Court – Hugh Hayes, attorney and Earl Wheeler, banker
