CORBETT
ARTS MANAGEMENT, LTD.

Master Class Polishing our Performance

For 30 years ACSO has been working with you to make beautiful music. Music is our business, and our mission has remained constant — to help orchestra musicians, managers, staff, and volunteers throughout California achieve their goals and reach even greater heights.

Our Annual Conference epitomizes ACSO's raison d'être, bringing member organizations together to learn from our colleagues, share insights and resources, renew friendships and initiate new associations. We return home invigorated, enthused and better equipped to handle both the mundane and the exotic facets of orchestra life.

Anniversaries are, traditionally, a time for fond reminiscing, a time for renewing our commitment, and a time for sharing past experiences and future dreams. So it is with ACSO's 30th Anniversary Conference.

We return to the basics, a Conference that focuses on the myriad aspects of orchestral life. The purpose of our gatherings has always been education and shared information. This year we rededicate ourselves to enhancing music-making throughout the state by bringing you into contact with the acknowledged master performers in every category of orchestra life. Our "Master Classes" will truly allow you to polish your performances — on the stage, in the boardroom, and in the office.

Whether this is your first-ever ACSO Conference or your 30th, you'll find both information and inspiration from this collegial assembly of California music-makers.

THIRTIETH
30
ANNIVERSARY

Welcome Delegates

Welcome to San Francisco, and to the 30th Annual Conference of the Association of California Symphony Orchestras. During the three decades in which ACSO has been promoting the cause of orchestras throughout our state, society has changed profoundly. As we stand at the edge of the millennium, all of us are taking stock of the future and of our place in it. There are few better ways to look ahead than by sharing perspectives and exploring new paths with a group of committed colleagues, all of them passionate about music and music's place in the world.

I'm sure you'll find this Conference enriching. I also hope you'll enjoy your time in San Francisco. On behalf of the San Francisco Symphony's Board, musicians, staff, and volunteers, I want to tell you how happy I am that you'll be spending a few very special days in our very special city.

Nancy H. Bechtle

Nancy H. Bechtle, President
San Francisco Symphony

For thirty years, the Association of California Symphony Orchestras has brought together individuals whose leadership has ensured artistic excellence and beneficial community services at orchestras throughout the state. We are proud to provide opportunities for Conference attendees to meet their colleagues at other orchestras, talk about the challenges they face, exchange effective ideas, learn from experienced professionals, and enjoy memorable concerts and exciting special events.

We do have a favor to ask you. Please join with us to celebrate ACSO's 30 years by contributing $30. ACSO depends on gifts to achieve its worthwhile goals. Participants in our $30 for 30 years campaign will all be wearing City of San Francisco stickers.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and enthusiasm. We are delighted that you are here with us.

ALLAN VOGEL

"Count your blessings. You're alive at the same time as oboist Allan Vogel. If you heard his performance of the Mozart 'K.370,' you heard the finest playing the world has to offer in this day and time, maybe ever. He is a consummate artist."
San Diego Daily Transcript

"the ever-wondrous Allan Vogel, an oboist who has few peers and no betters"
Los Angeles Times

"scrumptious"
Boston Globe

"Henri Lazarof's Oboe Concerto provided an intricately winding solo line that Allan Vogel played with virtuosic assurance"
New York Times

"splendid oboe playing"
Cleveland Plain Dealer

"undoubtedly one of a few world masters"
San Diego Union

"It is my continuing regret that there is not an Allan Vogel on every continent. He is an exceptional artist"
Neville Marriner

One of America's leading wind soloists, Mr. Vogel has appeared as soloist with orchestras throughout the country. New recordings include Lazarof's Oboe Concerto, Arias with flutist Eugenia Zuckerman, and Bach's Circle on Delos.

Mimi Horowitz

1922 - 1998

The Association of California Symphony Orchestras dedicates this session to the memory of Mimi Horowitz who died of cancer on June 9, 1998 at her home in La Quinta, Palm Desert.

Mimi served on the ACSO Board for several years as a representative of a small community orchestra. She attended every ACSO conference and workshop from the time she became manager of the Peninsula Symphony in Palos Verdes. She was a champion of ACSO services, which she pitched to her own orchestra and others she had gotten to know in her area.

Mimi was never without an idea or opinion. She had a wonderful heart and spirit and we will miss her greatly.

Michael Herzlin Productions presents...

A Century of Song

100 Years of Broadway

The brightest stars of the stage
come together to celebrate Broadway's first 100 years
in one fantastic evening of music and laughter.

A Century of Song is a special program featuring music by legendary composers, and performances drawn from 100 years of Broadway's greatest shows. It's the perfect programming choice for your seasons leading up to and beyond the millennium. The theater's current top entertainers perform selections by such musical luminaries as Cohan, Berlin, Porter, Rodgers & Hammerstein, Lerner & Loewe, Bernstein, Sondheim, Lloyd-Webber, Yeston ("Titanic"), Ahrens & Flaherty ("Ragtime") and more.

Book A Century of Song now and give your audiences a taste of why "The Great White Way" has been the premiere theater destination for the last 100 years. Call Michael Herzlin Productions for an evening your audiences will remember well into the next century.

French songstress captured the hearts of American audiences the way
RAQUEL BITTON has.

Fax: (415) 499-8107
e-mail: cerale@earthlink.net

From intimate settings to concert halls, RAQUEL BITTON sings the music of Edith Piaf, Maurice Chevalier, Yves Montand, Charles Trenet, Lucienne Boyer, Paul Misraki, Josephine Baker and the more contemporary composers like Michel Legrand and Jacques Brel. RAQUEL BITTON recreates that era with a repertoire that is an elegant blend of old, new, obscure and familiar, as well as songs written by American composers of the golden era.

"Portland Symphony Orchestra delights audience with a musical trip to Paris. RAQUEL BITTON's well conceived program was unforgettable, she moved from the biting Brechtian 'Boulevard du crime' to more introspective songs of love and loss, more and more in the breathy, subtly erotic Piaf style."
