

In-Home Aide Newsletter- December 2024 Posttest
Professionalism

ANSWERS

1. Professionalism means working in a professional way, or always doing your best work.

True

2. In-home aides, like any other health care professional, must follow all agencies' legal and ethical policies and/or protocol.

True

3. Notifying your supervisor when further education and training is needed for an assigned task is a way to demonstrate professionalism.

True

4. Communication is a one-way process.

False

5. A Home Care agency may have a code of ethics in place for In-Home aides.

True

6. Most agencies will have policies about maintaining professional relationships with clients.

True

7. Being competent means properly or sufficiently qualified or capable or efficient.

True

8. There would not be any times that you would need additional education to care for clients.

False

9. Social media is an area to be aware of with your agency policies to prevent a privacy violation

True

10. As an In-home aide, providing caring, quality and competent care according to the client's plan of care is your responsibility.

True