

In- home aide Newsletter- September 2024
Fall Risk Reduction
Post Test ANSWERS

1. Falls can happen in many different ways and for many different reasons.

True

2. Some conditions that could make a person more likely to fall include environmental hazards, medical conditions, and certain medications

True

3. Every fall results in an injury.

False

4. Some of the most common falls are at home.

True

5. There are not any ways to reduce falls risk.

False

6. Falls are not a normal part of aging.

True

7. Pet safety awareness is a way to help with falls risk reduction.

True

8. Balance problems are one reason older people fall.

True

9. Falls are the most common cause of traumatic brain injuries (TBI).

True

10. Observing clients for changes in mobility and functioning and recording and reporting per the plan of care instructions are ways to help with falls prevention.

True