

Personal Injury Attorney

Location: Forest Hills (Queens), NY

Cohen & Cohen Personal Injury Lawyers, P.C. is seeking driven and ambitious Attorneys and Trial Attorneys with at least 5 years of plaintiff-side personal injury experience. This is your chance to join a top-tier team committed to maximizing client outcomes using elite trial strategy.

Why This Role Stands Out

- Sky-high earning potential — Profit-sharing on every settlement in your caseload and 1/3 of the attorney's fee on any case you bring in.
- Learn from the best — under the mentorship of Albert Cohen and through the Keenan Trial Institute method, you'll master the system Don Keenan developed: focus-group tested, "Edge"-based strategies proven to produce extraordinary verdicts and settlements. The founder of the firm, Albert Cohen, will teach and guide you on how to maximize damages including utilizing various experts such as life care planners, economists, and accident reconstructionist. You will be taught how to leverage these experts to maximize the outcome of the case.
- Trial-ready training — attend elite trial schools (Keenan, Don Keenan, others), learn courtroom fundamentals—EBTs, opening statements, cross-examination, jury selection, summations, and more, all supported with mock juries and expert feedback.
- Comprehensive resources — leverage a full support team with paralegals, legal assistants, and attorneys experienced in optimizing recovery through life-care planners, economists, accident reconstructionists, etc.

Key Responsibilities

- Independently manage a full personal injury caseload from intake to resolution, including depositions, motions, trials, hearings, negotiations, and settlement closings.
- Apply the Keenan "Edge" system: submit cases for expert agility review, focus group testing, and strategic refinement.
- Collaborate with experts and support staff to build compelling, high-value arguments for injury, accident, labor law, premises liability, etc.
- Provide exceptional client care with clear, regular communication.
- Lead negotiations and leverage trial preparation to extract maximum value.

What We're Looking For

- Juris Doctor and active NY State Bar admission.
- Minimum 5 years' experience representing plaintiffs in substantial personal injury litigation.
- Strong organizational, multitasking, and tech-savviness; proficiency with case management systems and legal research tools.
- Exceptional communication—oral, written, and negotiation.
- High-initiative, success-driven mindset with a passion for applying expert-anchored strategies to increase damages.

What You'll Gain

- Elite trial methodology: Become fluent in the Keenan system—present your case in advance, get personalized feedback, join case-group workshops and mock juries across the country.
- Mentorship at the highest level: Albert Cohen will guide you on expert use, strategic frameworks, and courtroom persuasion.
- Career growth & recognition: This role offers both financial reward and a platform to become a standout trial lawyer.

Compensation & Perks

- $175,000-$225,000, commensurate with experience
- Profit-sharing on your caseload settlements.
- One-third attorney's fee on cases you originate.
- Free on-site parking in Forest Hills.
