Fair Chance Act Sample Forms

This packet contains sample documents to assist employers in complying with the California Fair Chance Act. For more information about this law, which seeks to remove barriers to employment for individuals with criminal histories, visit calcivilrights.ca.gov/fair-chance-act/.

Advertisement and Application / Compliance Statement

This is a voluntary statement that employers can choose to add to job advertisements and applications regarding the Fair Chance Act.

Conditional Job Offer / Letter

This sample letter can be used by an employer to make a conditional job offer and to notify the applicant that the employer intends to conduct a criminal background check.

Individual Assessment / Form

After making an applicant a conditional job offer and conducting a criminal background check, this sample form can be used by an employer to conduct the necessary individualized assessment of an applicant's criminal history.

Preliminary Notice to Revoke Job Offer Because of Conviction History / Letter

If an employer intends to revoke a job offer because of the applicant's background check, this sample letter can be used by an employer to meet its obligation to provide notice to the applicant.

Individual Reassessment / Form

Once an employer notifies an applicant that it intends to revoke a job offer because of something in the applicant's background check, the employer must give the applicant at least 5 days to provide evidence of rehabilitation and mitigation and at least ten days to dispute the accuracy of the background check. This sample form can be used by an employer to conduct an individualized reassessment based on information provided by the applicant.

Final Notice to Revoke Job Offer Because of Conviction History / Letter

If after considering any information provided by the applicant, the employer still intends to revoke the job offer, this sample letter can be used by an employer to meet its obligation to provide notice to the applicant of that decision.

ADVERTISEMENT AND APPLICATION COMPLIANCE STATEMENT

Below is a voluntary statement that employers can choose to add to job advertisements and applications regarding the Fair Chance Act:

[Employer] will consider qualified applicants with a criminal history pursuant to the California Fair Chance Act. You do not need to disclose your criminal history or participate in a background check until a conditional job offer is made to you. After making a conditional offer and running a background check, if [Employer] is concerned about conviction that is directly related to the job, you will be given the chance to explain the circumstances surrounding the conviction, provide mitigating or rehabilitative evidence, or challenge the accuracy of the background check report. Find out more about the Fair Chance Act by visiting calcivilrights.ca.gov/fair-chance-act/.

SAMPLE CONDITIONAL JOB OFFER LETTER

[DATE]

RE: Conditional Offer of Employment & Notice of Conviction Background Check

Dear [APPLICANT NAME]:

We are writing to make you a conditional offer of employment for the position of [INSERT POSITION]. Before this job offer becomes final, we will check your conviction history. The form attached to this letter asks for your permission to check your conviction history and provides more information about that background check.

After reviewing your conviction history report, we will either:

- a. Notify you that this conditional job offer has become final; or
- b. Notify you in writing that we intend to revoke (take back) this job offer because of your conviction history.

As required by California law, we will NOT consider any of the following information:

- Arrest not followed by conviction;
- Referral to or participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program; or
- Convictions that have been sealed, dismissed, expunged, or pardoned.

As required by the California Fair Chance Act, we will consider whether your conviction history is directly related to the duties of the job we have offered you. We will consider all of the following:

- The nature and seriousness of the offense
- The amount of time since the offense
- The nature of the job

We will notify you in writing if we plan to revoke (take back) this job offer after reviewing your conviction history. That decision will be preliminary, and you will have an opportunity to respond before it becomes P nal. We will identify conviction(s) that concern us, give you a copy of the background check report, and allow you at least 5 business days to respond with information about your rehabilitation or mitigating circumstances, or ten business days to respond with information showing the background check report is inaccurate.

We will review any information you timely submit and then decide whether to finalize or take back this conditional job offer. We will notify you of that decision in writing.

Sincerely, [EMPLOYER]

Enclosure: Authorization for Background Check (as required by the U.S. Fair Credit Reporting Act and California Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act)

[DATE]

Re: Preliminary Decision to Revoke Job Offer Because of Conviction History

Dear [APPLICANT NAME]:

After reviewing the results of your background check, we have made a preliminary (non-final) decision to revoke (take back) our previous job offer for the position of [INSERT POSITION] because of the following conviction(s):

- [LIST CONVICTION(S) THAT LED TO DECISION TO REVOKE OFFER]
- •

A copy of your conviction history report is attached to this letter. More information about our concerns is included in the "Individualized Assessment" below.

As prohibited by California law, we have NOT considered any of the following:

- Arrest(s) not followed by conviction;
- Participation in a pretrial or posttrial diversion program; or
- Convictions that have been sealed, dismissed, expunged, or pardoned.

Your Right to Respond:

You may respond to this letter before our decision to revoke the job offer becomes final. Within [INSERT NUMBER] business days* from when you first receive this notice, you may send us:

- a. Evidence of rehabilitation or mitigating circumstances
- b. Information challenging the accuracy of the conviction history listed above. If, within 5 business days, you notify us that you are challenging the accuracy of the attached conviction history report, you shall have another 5 business days to respond to this notice with evidence of inaccuracy.

Please send any additional information you would like us to consider to:
[INSERT NAME AND MAILING ADDRESS OR EMAIL ADDRESS]

Here are some examples of information you may send us:

- Evidence that you were not convicted of one or more of the offenses we listed above or that the conviction record is inaccurate (such as the number of convictions listed);
- Your age at the time of the incident that led to the conviction
- Circumstances surrounding the incident
- Your job history and the fact that you are looking for a job
- Participation in school, job training, counseling, community service, treatment, and/or rehabilitation programs
- Successfully following the rules of probation or parole
