He made lifelong connections at the hotel and could always be counted upon to find a hotel job to fellow students and family members; and

He always knew the right person for the job, and heavily encouraged younger Orthodontists to get involved, whether that was academically or politically. He would just tap you on the shoulder and say "you need to do this", and he was never denied; and
- Whereas: Robin had a strong connection with Pender Island where he and Joan bought land and built a vacation home. He loved being with family, fishing and tinkering with whatever needed fixing.
