PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE FALL 2019

At the time I wrote this message, I was still serving as president. However, by the time this Newsletter reaches our membership, I will have passed the president's baton to Dr. Peter Greco. For the spring of 2019 issue and what I believed at the time was the last President's Message I would pen, I closed with a quote from Dr. George Hahn's paper - "The History and Philosophy of the Edward H. Angle Society of Orthodontia" which he gave at the Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Meeting of the Edward H. Angle Society of Orthodontia held in Chicago in 1955. This is a milestone paper and every member or aspiring member of our esteemed Angle Society would benefit from reading it and occasionally revisiting it for an inspirational recharge. One has to ask, why is there an Angle Society? Is the Angle Society still relevant in today's world? I had a dental school GP classmate of mine recently express surprise the Angle Society was still in existence. I became an Affiliate member in 1989 and at that time, I recall our President, Dr. Lee Boese, reporting on the 1989 Angle Biennial Meeting that was held at the Drake Hotel, in Chicago and the serious concern at the time for the relevance and future of the Angle Society. At the 2013 Biennial Meeting in Vancouver, BC a committee was convened to discuss the problem of membership recruitment and how we might generate interest in joining among the new generation of orthodontists. And once again, I go back to Dr. Hahn's paper and quote - "If we are to emulate the ideals of Angle we must remain a working society. He (Dr. Angle) had no time for sloths." This Society is not for everyone. It is as our Secretary Emeritus

Dr. Sheldon Peck has stated - "a select and elect" organization. We can all be proud of the success and stability of the Angle Society. We have the membership numbers to sustain us and we are financially in incredibly good standing. Happily, as I reported in the fall 2018 Newsletter, we are in a position for our Angle Society to grant each hosting component $20,000 to use for their Biennial. We have committed to one round and will reassess after that. In times past, the Central Body would loan $10,000 and expect repayment of the majority of the funds. I believe we are as strong and stable as ever and that we have a great future. I will close with an excerpt from Dr. Hahn's paper. However, please keep in mind this was 1955 and the writing, in character to that era, was gender biased.

"What is the glue, the cementing substance, the bond that brings and holds the members of the society together? Several months ago I wrote twelve members of this society and asked them two questions. First, why should there be an Angle Society? Second, what does the Angle Society mean to you? These men were selected from among our oldest as well as from our youngest members, from the East and from the West. I wish I could read their letters, but I promised them that their replies would not be made public. Some of them could not express their feelings in words. It was akin to asking a man what faith in God meant to him. I will try to give you a composite interpretation of the replies. "The Angle Society should continue to live because it means there is an ideal over and above the average that is worth living and striving to attain. There is in the society a fellowship, not as the word is commonly used, but a fellowship in which there is no selfishness, no jealousy, no deceit, but an honesty of purpose in which every man is held in that esteem which gives him a feeling of pride tempered by humility. It offers an opportunity for the full and open exchange of knowledge and ideas eagerly offered with nothing held back. It takes one out of the realm and routine of mediocrity which is so common today and into a standard of conduct which makes living and working a pleasure. There is an inspiration that comes from personal contact with men whose object is not self-glorification but a willingness to give freely of what they have learned with only the thought of helping others. It is the maintenance of the ideal of perfection which in our profession originated with Angle and which is rapidly disappearing in the philosophy of present day living and thinking. In the Angle Society there is a feeling of pride in the accomplishments of, or the honors bestowed on a fellow member which creates in each of us a desire to become better orthodontists ourselves."

These words ring as true today as they did almost 65 years ago. It is a testament to its relevance that the Angle Society has survived nearly 90 years and is today as strong as ever.

Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to serve as your President. ■

ANGLE HERITAGE CAMPAIGN

The 2019 Angle Biennial meeting was held in Napa Valley, CA. It was a great meeting hosted by Angle Northern California and named in honor of Angle Orthodontist Editor Emeritus, Dr. Robert J. Isaacson. During the business meeting we were pleased to share that the Angle Heritage Campaign envisioned by Dr. Isaacson and the EHASO Board of Directors and launched at the 2005 Angle Biennial in Lake Tahoe is nearly complete. While it has taken longer than originally anticipated, based on the donations and growth of those donations we have realized 95% of our $2,000,000 goal.

At this time it is important to remember all that the profession and the Angle Society has given to each of us. To those who have already contributed generously, THANK YOU. To our newer members who may not have been present in 2005 (we are an actively growing society that welcomes new members to each of our components annually!), please consider donating all or a portion of a case to help us reach our goal. Other options include an automated gift each month that many past donors have found convenient.

We are indebted to the service of our Emeritus Editor, Dr. Robert J. Isaacson and the EHASO Board of Directors who set this into motion. We look forward to announcing the successful conclusion of this fundraising campaign in the coming days. Help make this a reality to honor not only Dr. Edward H Angle, but also our Editor Emeritus Dr. Robert J. Isaacson.

Who was Dr. George Hahn?

Dr. Hahn graduated from the Angle School in Pasadena in 1922 and along with Drs George Atkinson and Cecil Steiner he became mainstays of Angle's teaching staff. In 1925, he joined the faculty of the University of California and taught orthodontics for the rest of his career. He was a charter member of the 1930 rebirth and reorganization of the Edward H. Angle Society of Orthodontia. He became treasurer of the society in 1938 until 1953 when he became Secretary.

2019 Angle Midwest Annual Meeting

(February 2 – 6, 2019):

Our president, James Hartsfield, Jr., and his lovely wife, Karen, put together a fabulous program at the amazing TradeWinds Island Grand Resort. We all enjoyed the warm weather and soft white sands of Florida's St. Pete Beach. Attendance was once again outstanding with 101 doctors, 52 spouses, and 25 children, including 6 Guests, 5 Candidates, and 7 new Affiliates. Steve Marshall's stellar scientific program included 13 Active member presentations, 7 Affiliate membership presentations, and 12 discussions. One of the special features of our component is our social program. In addition to receptions and a Gala banquet dinner, this year we enjoyed kayaking and premier Birding at the historic Fort De Soto Park, an exciting Super Bowl Party on the beach, and a spectacular tour of the Salvador Dali Museum.

Once again, with our expanded number of Affiliates, additional help was required from past Admissions Committee members (Drs. Randy Wright, Steven Harrison, Stephen Roehm, Steve Sherman, and Timothy Trulove). We also had to be creative with our scientific program due to the number of Affiliate paper presentations this year.

The following members have been appointed to committees:

- Dr. Anthony Puntillo – Admissions Committee Chair
- Dr. Bardley Pearson – Admissions Committee Secretary
- Dr. Michael Williams – Admissions Committee
- Dr. Flavia Artese – Study Committee

One calls for control of the tuition costs and the second asks for the KDA financial committee to forgive all dues for new graduates for five years. His recent paper in the Angle Orthodontist, Surviving orthodontic graduate debt: Making correct career choices to manage debt repayment, reduction or forgiveness addresses this issue (Haskell, B. and Keefe, T. Até mais! ■

THE 43RD ANGLE SOCIETY BIENNIAL MEETING

A great sense of satisfaction and accomplishment was felt by the Angle Northern California component at the conclusion of the Napa Valley 2019 Biennial EHASO meeting. Post meeting reports have given stellar reviews for the scientific programs, the venue, outside activities and social events. We are so very grateful that everything went smoothly. Even the weather and air quality were perfect after some disturbing pre-meeting news of wildfires to the north and west. On behalf of our planning committee, I would like to thank all meeting participants, guests, sponsors and support staff from the Meritage Resort and Spa for all that they did to truly make this a great event.

Now, we set our sights on the 2021 Biennial meeting hosted by Angle East and wish President Dr. Peter Greco and his planning committee all the very best with their preparations for what will certainly be another spectacular Biennial gathering of the Angle family. We will see you all at Wentworth by the Sea, NH in 2021

With gratitude,

The 43rd International Biennial Meeting of the EHASO was held at the Meritage Resort and Spa between November 1 through 5, 2019 in Napa, California. The meeting was hosted by Angle Northern California and was dedicated to the memory of the late Dr. Robert Isaacson. Dr Isaacson was an icon within the Society and a long term editor of The Angle Orthodontist. Attendees and their spouses enjoyed sunshine and warm temperatures in classical wine country. The meeting began with a lecture which described the history of the Napa Valley, including the evolution of its reputation as one of the world's leading wine producers. Peter Greco presented an overview of the history of the Angle Society and its contemporary challenges. Angle East members Ambra Michelotti and Carroll-Ann Trotman treated the audience to their superb papers on topics of Juvenile Rheumatoid Arthritis and restoring function after facial paralysis and cleft repair. Discussers of papers from other components were David Musich, Peter Ngan and Bill Northway. Angle East was well represented both in attendance as well as at the podium. A total of twelve members from our component attended.

The meeting also honored Northern California component veterans Gary Baughman, Sheldon Baumrind, Robert Boyd, Harry Hataska, Gerald Nelson, and Ib Nelson. David Hatcher was inducted into the Society as an Honorary Member and provided an excellent lecture on diagnosis of facial asymmetry.

There was an array of social activities for both members and spouses, including a wine tasting session at the local Artesa Winery, a golf outing, bike tour, and cooking class.

This meeting provided ample opportunity for us to promote the 44th EHASO Biennial Meeting, which will be hosted by our own component at the Wentworth By the Sea in New Castle, New Hampshire between September 21-25, 2021. Thanks go to Kate Greco for assembling 168 beautifully tagged favor bags that were distributed by several of our members. The favors became an instant success as they heralded the 2021 meeting. Portland, Oregon, The Benson Hotel

Mike Chaffee has been working hard to put together another excellent program. This year's meeting includes membership presentations by three of our Affiliates: Dr. Howard Freedman, Dr. Reid Winkler and Dr. Ben Pliska. Dr. Keiji Moriyama, Professor and Chair, Maxillofacial Orthognathics, Tokyo Medical and Dental University, will be presenting "Dental equilibrium revisited: Soft tissue considerations in treatment of dentoskeletal discrepancies" as he transfers his membership to our component. We are looking forward to welcoming each of them as Regular Members.

Our special presenter will be Dr. Hyo-Sang Park, coming to talk to us from Daegu, South Korea, where he serves as Clinical Professor and Chair at Kyung-Pook National University. Dr. Park is a pioneer in skeletal anchorage, beginning microimplant development and research in 1998. He has published more than a hundred articles on the subject, as well as six text books. He serves as a reviewer for the AJODO, the Angle Orthodontist, European Journal of Orthodontics, Orthodontics and Craniofacial Research, and the Korean Journal of Orthodontics. Dr. Park will present "Ensuring maximum profile changes in extraction cases treated with microimplants", emphasizing how to maximize profile improvement in hyperdivergent patients, focusing on the soft tissue dimension on facial esthetic improvement, using microimplants for vertical control.

Dr. Park will also present "Non-extraction treatment with molar distalization using microimplants". The distalization of molars in non-extraction treatment can reduce the extraction of premolars in borderline cases. However, there are many things to be considered in diagnosis, treatment planning, and biomechanics for successful treatment. In addition, he will discuss microimplant anchorage with sliding mechanics and possible biologic limits.

Seuss Kasssieh was recently appointed by the College of Diplomates of the American Board of Orthodontics as the Co-chair of the Resident Advocacy program in North America. The committee ensures that each graduate orthodontic residency program in the United States and Canada has an ABO Diplomate who advocates to residents to become board certified. He has served this committee for several years as an advocate at the Graduate Orthodontic Department at the Arizona School of Dentistry and Oral Health (A.S.D.O.H. a.k.a. A.T. Still University in the Phoenix area). Seuss has been a part-time clinical professor in the graduate program and an Advocate for ABO, and the Angle Society, since the departments' inception in 2008. When asked about his recent appointment by the board he said "It's my honor and pleasure to serve the board in this new capacity, for many years I enjoyed being a judge of the residents' cases at the AAO while serving CDABO's Residency Case Display committee, and still believe, more than ever, that the ABO sets the standard for excellence in the art and science of orthodontics." Dr. Kasssieh teaches evidence based orthodontics (EBO) and help's residents prepare for the written ABO exam by reviewing the required EBO articles. He also teaches residents the cast-radiographic analysis (CRE) of the ABO.

Finally, he has served the Arizona Orthodontic Study Group (AOSG) as the case examiner since 2009. AOSG is one of the oldest orthodontic study groups in the country as it was founded in 1955 in Phoenix, Arizona. Originally called the Arizona Orthodontic Society, this group formed as an offshoot of the Texas

Tweed Group founded in 1946. The Texas Tweed Group had stemmed from colleagues meeting at the Tweed course wanting to share information and learn from each other. Before the Arizona Orthodontic Society's official inception, informal meetings of what would be the founding members of the society had been held since 1943.
